

Spain's African Colonial Legacies

Morocco and Equatorial Guinea Compared

By

Yolanda Aixelà-Cabré

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

List of Tables and Figures VII

Introduction: Cities at the Decolonial Margins 1

1 Al-Hoceima and Bata

Local Histories, Glocal Impacts 4

- 1 Hypothesis 4
- 2 State of the Art 6
- 3 Aims 16
- 4 Methodologies 22

2 Colonial Imprints in African City Formation 33

- 1 Baata, Bata Viejo, Nueva Bata and Bata: A European City in Central Africa 34
 - 1.1 Baata, Bata Viejo, Nueva Bata and Bata (1880–1939): Occupation and Supremacism 35
 - 1.2 From Segregated Bata to Equatorial Guinean Empowerment (1940–1968) 46
 - 1.3 Urban Spaces and Colonial Power: La Plaza del Reloj 70
- 2 Taghzout, Villa Sanjurjo, Villa Alhucemas and Alhucemas: A Spanish City in Riffian Lands 74
 - 2.1 Taghzout, Cala del Quemado, Villa Sanjurjo, Villa Alhucemas y Alhucemas (1927–1956): No Sign of Hispano–Moroccan Brotherhood 75
 - 2.2 Urban Heritage and Settlers: A City with No Riffians 118
- 3 Epilogue: Empowerment from the Margins 123

3 Cities after Colonial Independence

The Search for Collective Affirmation and Decolonial Contestation 125

- 1 Bata, Ciudad Vilangwa, Mang: Glocalised Fangisation 126
 - 1.1 Macías Nguema (1969–1979): Covert Fangisation 129
 - 1.2 Obiang Nguema (1979–): From ayong and muadjang to etunga-bot of Wele-Nzas (or How to Shift from Ethnic to Family Community) 145
 - 1.3 Memories in Conflict: Nkum Was (Plaza del Reloj) and Plaza de la Libertad 162
 - 1.3.1 Macías 162
 - 1.3.2 Obiang 168

2	Al-Hoceima – Taghzout: The Glocal Affirmation of the Riffian Community	175
2.1	Al-Hoceima becomes Riffian: From the Repression of 1958–1959 and 1984 to the Creation of IRCAM in 2001 and the Truth Commission in 2005	178
2.2	The Recognition of Amazighness in the Constitution (2011) and the Hirak Movement (2016–) as Riffian Responses to Marginalisation and Reprovincialisation	197
2.3	The Challenge from the Street. Graffiti for a Collective Memory	208
3	Epilogue: Social Contestation and Glocal Projections	212
4	Conclusions: African Cities Asserting Themselves in a Global World	214
	Bibliography	221
	Index	255

Tables and Figures

Tables

1	Population of Bata	21
2	Population of Al-Hoceima	22
3	Population of the Spanish Territories of the Gulf of Guinea	40
4	Indigenous population of Guinea continental	41
5	Salary costs of African workers of the Hacienda Virgen de Montserrat	48
6	Black people in the continental territory: Coast	48
7	White people in the Spanish Territories of the Gulf of Guinea	49
8	White people in Bata district (continental Equatorial Guinea)	49
9	Black people in Bata district (continental Equatorial Guinea)	50
10	White people and Black people in Bata city	51
11	Budget of the Spanish Territories of the Gulf of Guinea	53
12	Value of exported and imported goods (in thousands of pesetas)	53
13	Budget of Bata and Santa Isabel (in thousands of pesetas)	54
14	Indigenous justice in Bata	57
15	Prison movement in the continental territory	58
16	Detentions in the Bata delegation	59
17	Colonial Guard of the Spanish Territories of the Gulf of Guinea	61
18	Population of the Spanish Protectorate	83
19	Extension and population of the main regions of the Spanish Protectorate	84
20	Population of the Rif, 1950 census	84
21	Extension and population of the nearest dhzqba'ir to Al-Hoceima	85
22	Morocco, 1933 census	87
23	Population of the Spanish Protectorate by cities and regions	89
24	Percentage of Spanish population in the main cities, 1933 census	90
25	Cultural diversity in the main Spanish enclaves	90
26	Population of the Peñón of Alhucemas	91
27	Urban settlement, 1933 census	92
28	Colonial structures and dual authorities in the Spanish Protectorate	93
29	General expenses in Morocco from 1920 to 1930	101
30	Budget of the Spanish Protectorate (in pesetas)	102
31	Budget of the Rif Region (in pesetas)	102
32	Expenses and provision for infrastructures in the Spanish Protectorate in 1930	102
33	Balance of Villa Sanjurjo (in pesetas)	103

34	Comparative income and expenses in 1936 Villa Alhucemas and Tétouan Municipal Councils (in pesetas)	104
35	Budget of Villa Alhucemas and Tétouan Municipal Councils (in pesetas)	105
36	Roads and paths in the Spanish Protectorate (1935)	111
37	Moroccan primary education in Villa Alhucemas and its surroundings. 1942–1943 Academic year	111
38	Moroccan primary education in Villa Alhucemas and its surroundings. 1943–1944 Academic year	112
39	Healthcare in the Rif 1943	114
40	Port of Villa Alhucemas (in pesetas)	120
41	Population in the Littoral Province and the North Bioko Province	128
42	Population of Bata and Malabo	129
43	Schooling in primary studies	134
44	Schooling in secondary education in the city of Bata (until June 1969)	134
45	Bata's iconic buildings	174
46	Population of Al-Hoceima	177
47	Population of Al-Hoceima and most influent rural communes of the area. 1960 Census	182
48	Alhucemas education and illiteracy data: 2014 census	184
49	Poverty and inequality 2007 (last data available)	190
50	Emblematic buildings of Al-Hoceima	209

Figures

1	Playa del Quemado viewpoint, Al-Hoceima. September 2016. Photo: Yolanda Aixelà-Cabré	27
2	La Cantabria canning plant, Al-Hoceima. September 2016. See graffiti on left. Photo: Yolanda Aixelà-Cabré	27
3	Friends meeting, Al-Hoceima, 1950s. Private collection	28
4	Torre del Reloj , Bata. August 2019. Courtesy of anonymous photographer	29
5	Monumento al Golpe de Libertad . Plaza de la Libertad , Bata. August 2019. Courtesy of anonymous photographer	30
6	Torre de la Libertad , Bata. August 2019. Courtesy of anonymous photographer	31
7	Ramon Reig at Hacienda Virgen de Montserrat , Oveng (Bata). 1930s. Fondo Giménez Ferrer (IMF-CSIC)	32