

The Chicago Guide to
FACT-CHECKING

Brooke Borel

Second Edition

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS Chicago and London

Contents

Introduction 1

CHAPTER ONE: Why We Fact-Check 16

CHAPTER TWO: What We Fact-Check 33

CHAPTER THREE: How We Fact-Check 38

The Magazine Model 39

The Newspaper Model 53

The Hybrid Model 58

Fact-Checking Other Media 58

Navigating Relationships with Editors, Writers, and Producers 69

Fact-Checking on a Budget 73

Fact-Checking Your Own Writing 75

How to Get a Fact-Checking Job 77

CHAPTER FOUR: Checking Different Types of Facts 80

Basic Facts 80

Numbers and Measurements 82

Polls 87

Quotes 92

Concepts 95

Analogies 97

Images 98

Physical Descriptions 104

Sports 105

Historical Quotes and Stories 106

Product Claims 107

Languages Other than English 109

Outlets outside the United States	110
“Common Knowledge”	111
Headlines and Cover Lines	111
Facts from Anonymous or Sensitive Sources	112
Sensitive Subjects: Trauma, Abuse, and More	113
Conflicting Facts	116
Gray Areas	117
Litigious Material	119
Plagiarism and Fabrication	120

CHAPTER FIVE: Sourcing 125

People	126
Interview Recordings and Transcripts	137
Search Engines and Wikis	138
Maps and Atlases	141
Press Releases	142
Books	143
Newspapers	145
Other Publications	147
Academic Literature	148

CHAPTER SIX: Record Keeping 154

Paper Backup	155
Electronic Backup	157

CHAPTER SEVEN: Test Your Skills 161

Conclusion 165

Acknowledgments 173

APPENDIX ONE: “Test Your Skills” Answer Keys 175

APPENDIX TWO: Suggested Reading and Listening 187

References 191

Index 229