

Wahhābism

THE HISTORY OF A MILITANT
ISLAMIC MOVEMENT

COLE M. BUNZEL

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS
PRINCETON & OXFORD

CONTENTS

Illustrations vii

Maps and Figures viii

Preface xiii

Note on Conventions xvii

Introduction	1
1 Muḥammad ibn 'Abd al-Wahhāb and His Discontents	29
2 The Doctrine of Ibn 'Abd al-Wahhāb I: The Taymiyyan Background	92
3 The Doctrine of Ibn 'Abd al-Wahhāb II: The Key Components	127
4 The Warpath of Early Wahhābism: The First Saudi State (1741–1818)	191
5 The Reassertion of Enmity: The Second Saudi State (1823–1887)	228
6 The Persistence of Enmity: The Rashīdī Interregnum (1887–1902)	261
7 The Decline of Enmity: The Rise of the Third Saudi State (1902–1932)	294
Conclusion: The Fall and Rise of Militant Wahhābism	329

Appendix 343

Glossary 347

Bibliography 351

Index 377

ILLUSTRATIONS

Maps

- |  |      |
|--|------|
| 1. The Arabian Peninsula in the eighteenth century | viii |
| 2. Najd in the eighteenth century                  | ix   |

Figures

- |                     |    |
|---------------------|----|
| 1. The Āl al-Shaykh | x  |
| 2. The Āl Su'ūd     | xi |

Tables

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1.1. Wahhābī epistles quoted in early refutations            | 91  |
| A.1. Dated or roughly datable early refutations of Wahhābism | 343 |
| A.2. Undated early refutations of Wahhābism                  | 345 |