

The Civil War Political Tradition

TEN PORTRAITS OF THOSE WHO FORMED IT

Paul D. Escott

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA PRESS
CHARLOTTESVILLE AND LONDON

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	i
Henry Clay: Old Virtues in New Times	9
John C. Calhoun: Inveterate Ideologue	26
Harriet Beecher Stowe: The Power of Her Pen	42
Frederick Douglass: The Outsider as Resolute Prophet	58
Stephen A. Douglas: Overtaken by Polarization	77
Jefferson Davis: A Defiant Tradition and Tradition Defied	92
Abraham Lincoln: Riding the Storm to Historic Progress	111
Horace Greeley: American Enthusiast	129
Albion Tourgée: Civil War as a Sustained Clash of Cultures	148
Elizabeth Cady Stanton: Profound Radical	166
A Brief Guide to Further Reading	185
Index	193