

Alvar Aalto and The Art of Landscape

Teija Isohauta

Contents

|  |      |
|--|------|
| Preface   | ix   |
| Jussi Rautsi  |      |
| Acknowledgement   | xiii |
| Introduction  | 1    |
| 1 Writings of Alvar Aalto   | 5    |
| Landscape   | 5    |
| Biology and nature  | 9    |
| Garden and architecture   | 16   |
| 2 The origin of Aalto's landscape concept                                 | 22   |
| The Finnish national landscape  | 22   |
| Light and shadow in Alvar Aalto's architecture                                   | 22   |
| The garden art as part of landscape  | 25   |
| The holistic approach in Aalto's architecture                                    | 26   |
| Riihitie House, 1935–36, Helsinki  | 28   |
| The garden city movement   | 31   |
| Sunila pulp mill and housing area, 1936–37                                       | 32   |
| The re-evaluated landscape   | 35   |
| The shifting contours in Aalto's architecture                                    | 37   |
| Muurame Church, 1926–29  | 38   |
| The room in between  | 39   |
| Muuratsalo experimental house, 1952–54   | 41   |
| Towards a modern landscape  | 43   |
| Paimio Sanatorium, 1928–29, 1930–32  | 46   |
| The forerunners of Nordic landscape architecture,the contemporaries of Aalto | 47   |
| Garden designers consulting Aalto  | 49   |
| The Japanese reconstructed landscape                                      | 51   |
| Authenticity of materials and forms in Aalto's architecture                      | 53   |

|          |  |            |
|----------|--|------------|
|          | Villa Mairea 1938–39, Noormarkku 55  |            |
|          | The Mediterranean landscape 55  |            |
|          | Studio Aalto, 1954–55, 1962–63 58  |            |
|          | The constructed landscape of Aalto 60  |            |
|          | Jyväskylä University, 1951, 1952–55 / 1962–69 / 1969–76 62   |            |
|          | A sidetrack to the orient 65  |            |
|          | National Pensions Institute, 1953–57 67  |            |
|          | The United States – genius loci and the raised importance of spatial planning 69                              |            |
|          | Spatial plans and green networks 70   |            |
|          | Oulu River Rapids Centre, 1942 74  |            |
| 3 | Alvar Aalto – the influences of the visual arts   | 84  |
|          | The modern art in Aalto's time 84   |            |
|          | Gesamtkunstwerk 86   |            |
|          | The role of sketching 91   |            |
|          | Suomussalmi war memorial, 1959 91  |            |
|          | Salpausselkä relief, 1966 93   |            |
|          | Shaping the terrain as an attribute in Aalto's architecture 94   |            |
|          | Säynätsalo Town Hall, 1949–52 98   |            |
|          | Towards 'Monumental Art' 98  |            |
|          | Seinäjäki City Centre 103  |            |
| 4 | Case studies  | 109 |
|          | Master plan of Imatra and regional plan of Rovaniemi – green flexibility 109                                  |            |
|          | Imatra 1947–53 109   |            |
|          | Rovaniemi urban plan, 1944–45; the regional plan of Lapland, 1951–57; the plan of Rovaniemi city centre, 1961–76 112 |            |
|          | Two sides of urbanism – Helsinki City Centre and satellite centre Stensvik 116                                |            |
|          | Helsinki City Centre, 1959–64, 1972; Finlandia Hall, 1961–68, 69–71 116  |            |
|          | Stensvik urban plan, 1962, 1964–70 120   |            |
|          | Kiruna and Alajärvi – two town halls making the best out of the landscape 124                                 |            |
|          | Kiruna Town Hall, 1958 124   |            |
|          | Alajärvi Town Hall 1966–69; Town hall, 1967; Health Care Centre, 1968; Parish Hall, 1970; Library, 1991 126          |            |
|          | Cultural projects – Nordic House and Shiraz Art Museum 128  |            |
|          | Nordic House, 1963–68 128  |            |
|          | Shiraz Art Museum, 1969–70 130   |            |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Churches as landmarks in Riola di Vergato and in Lahti        | 135 |
| Riola di Vergato   | 135 |
| Lahti Church of the Cross, 1950, 1969–78                             | 140 |
| Maison Carré and Villa Kokkonen – private houses on the slope | 145 |
| Maison Louis Carré 1956–63   | 145 |
| Villa Kokkonen, 1967–69  | 150 |
| 5 Architecture in the Landscape of Central Finland            | 160 |
| 6 Chronology  | 163 |
| Conclusions   | 174 |
| Landscape features  | 174 |
| Variables for creating the landscape                                 | 177 |
| Index   | 183 |