

EDITED BY KATE HAMBLIN
MATTHEW LARIVIERE

CARE TECHNOLOGIES FOR AGEING SOCIETIES

An International Comparison

POLICY PRESS  RESEARCH

Contents

Series editor preface	viii
List of figures, tables and boxes	x
Notes on contributors	xi
Acknowledgements	xv
one Care technologies for ageing societies: setting the scene Kate Hamblin and Matthew Lariviere	1
two Technology and adult social care in England James Wright and Kate Hamblin	18
three Technology to support ageing in place in Australia Meryl Lovarini, Kate O'Loughlin and Lindy Clemson	49
four The role of assistive technologies in home care delivery In Germany: between vision and reality Andreas Hoff and Bill Pottharst	72
five Technology and care in Canada Arlene Astell and Janet Fast	98
six Designing a future in longevity societies: integrating long-term care and technology-based services in Japan Tomoko Wakui	119
seven Care technologies for ageing societies: key lessons Matthew Lariviere and Kate Hamblin	141
Index	151

List of figures, tables and boxes

Figures

6.1	Number of people certified as needing long-term care and support ('primary insured people') in Japan 2000–2022	122
6.2	Changes in Japanese population structure in 2015, 2025 and 2050	123
6.3	Annual governmental budget for social security in Japan from fiscal year 2013 to 2022, by purpose (in trillion Japanese yen)	127

Tables

3.1	Waiting times for HCPs, third quarter 2020–2021	52
4.1	LTCI benefit payments per month by grade and type of care (in euros)	74

Boxes

2.1	Social care in England: key statistics	19
4.1	Key principles of the 8th Ageing Report	79