

Mobile Identities:

Race, Ethnicity, and Borders in Contemporary Literature and Culture

Edited by

Kamal Sbiri, Jopi Nyman,
and Rachida Yassine

Cambridge
Scholars
Publishing

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Illustrations .....	vii
Acknowledgements .....	ix
Chapter One.....	1
Introduction
Kamal Sbiri, Jopi Nyman, and Rachida Yassine
PART I: Identities on the Move: The Traumas of Border Crossing
Chapter Two .....	15
Narratives of Contemporary Im/mobility: Writing Forced Migration in the Borderscape
Jopi Nyman
Chapter Three .....	35
Black Transits: Transition, Recognition, and Bordering in Marie NDiaye's Three Strong Women
Kamal Sbiri
Chapter Four .....	57
Prévu and Déjà Vu : Sub-Saharan Migration to Europe through the Visionary Lens of Sembène Ousmane
Rachida Yassine
PART II: Welcome to the Land of Disputes: Identity, Home, and Belonging in Transnational Spaces
Chapter Five .....	75
(Re)framing Trauma, Home, Race, and Diasporic Identity in (Post-) 9/11 Fiction: Laila Halaby's Once in a Promised Land
Brahim Benmoh and Hamza Touzani

Chapter Six .....	91
Diasporic Women's Narratives: Women's Sexuality and Religion as Conflicting Forces in Najat El Hachmi's The Last Patriarch Fatimaezzahra Abid
Chapter Seven.....	111
Rewriting Otherness: The Alter(native) Discourse of Difference in Muhammad as-Saffar's Sudfat Liqae Maa al Jadid Abdelaziz Tritha
PART III: Negotiating Migration, Integration, and Citizenship
Chapter Eight.....	127
The Politics of Recognition and Cosmopolitanism: For an Ethic of Global Citizenship Rachid Ait Abdelmouman
Chapter Nine.....	143
Moroccan Migration and Integration Policy: The Intersection of Culture and Public Policy Making Mohamed Ouheimmou and Mohamed El Amine Moumine
Contributors.....	165
Index.....	169