

Anne-Marie Guimier-Sorbets

With the collaboration of Alain Guimier, Nicolas Morand, and Denis Weidmann

Mosaics of Alexandria

Pavements of Greek and Roman Egypt

A Centre d'Études Alexandrines Publication

The American University in Cairo Press

Cairo New York

Contents

Preface	9	Spotlight 9. Egyptian Blue, Revealed by VIL Photography	72
		The gorgoneion in the center of a fleuron	77
A Brief History of the Mosaic	13	The Imperial Period	82
What Is a Mosaic?	13	Evolving techniques and materials	82
The First Greek Mosaics	13	The choice of motifs, their treatment, and the composition of the pavements	82
Sources of Inspiration and Applied Techniques	13	The origins and evolution of a mosaic motif: The guilloche	84
The Development of the Mosaic in Ptolemaic Alexandria	14	Continuity and innovation in the types of mosaic and flooring	88
Spotlight 1. Mortar Floors	16
Spotlight 2. Mortar Floors with Stone Chips and Plaques	18
Chapter 1: The First Mosaics of Alexandria	21	Chapter 4: The Iconography of Mosaics	91
The Oldest Mosaic of Alexandria	21	Mythological Scenes	91
The Hunter Surrounded by Wild Animals	21	When a satyr meets a nymph	91
Spotlight 3. Floor Techniques: Mosaics of Pebbles and Tesserae, Lead Strips	22	Lycurgus and Ambrosia	93
Spotlight 4. A Mythical Animal: The Griffin	28	Alpheus and Arethusa	95
The Little Hunters of Shatby	29	A Taste for Representations of Animals	97
Spotlight 5: The Animals of the Hunting Erotes Mosaic	39	The birds	97
		The pavement of the birds at Kom al-Dikka	99
Chapter 2: Imitating Painting, Color Conquers	43	A bird emblema	102
The Royal Portraits of Thmuis	43	Spotlight 10. The Birds of Rhodes	105
Spotlight 6. The Use of Faience	46	Fish	107
Mosaics from the Palaces of Alexandria	51	The popularity of polychrome animal panels	107
Spotlight 7. The Use of Large Regular Tesserae	60	Nilotic Scenes and Other Aquatic Representations	108
		Nilotic scenes of the Ptolemaic period	108
Chapter 3: Techniques and Style	67	Nilotic scenes of the imperial period	108
The Hellenistic Era: New Motifs, Added Color	67	The marine mosaic with Erotes	118
Polychrome swastika meander with squares in perspective	67
Cubes in perspective	67	Chapter 5: Mosaics in Their Architectural Context	123
Spotlight 8. Origins and Development of a Motif: The Palm Trunk (Stipe) Garland	68	Baths in the Fayoum and Upper Egypt in the Ptolemaic Period	123
Fleurons made of bipartite leaves	70	The Zenon archive and the baths of the House of Diotimos	123
The gorgoneion	70	The Greek baths of Diospolis Parva and Karnak	123
		Mosaic Decoration in Houses of the Imperial Period	127
		The Villa of the Birds in Kom al-Dikka	127
		The House of Medusa on the Diana Theater site	129

Chapter 6: The Organization of Production	139	Chapter 8: The Role of Alexandria in the History
Where and How Did the Mosaicist Work?	139	of the Ancient Mosaic	181
The Emblema Technique and Mixed Laying Technique	139	The Hellenistic Period: Alexandrian Workshops outside
Hellenistic emblemata	139	Egypt	181
Spotlight 11. Ptolemais, Cyrenaica, Three Alexandrian		The Nilotic mosaic of Palestrina	181
emblemata from the Hellenistic Period	140	The mosaics of the House of the Faun at Pompeii	182
Emblemata of the imperial period	143	Alexander and Darius	183
Spotlight 12. The Workshop of the Medusa emblemata		Nilotic panels	185
from the Diana Theater Site	144	Garland with masks	185
Mixed laying technique	145	Symplegma	186
Opus Sectile	146	Dionysus on a tiger	186
Did Alexandrians practice opus sectile in the Ptolemaic		The lion	186
period?	147	Doves	189
Sectilia pavimenta of the imperial period	148	Xenia , cat, and bird	189
Mural panels in opus sectile of the Late Roman period	156	A seascape with fauna	189
		Floors of plaques and opera sectilia	191
		Other Alexandrian elements in the House of the Faun	194
Chapter 7: Late Antiquity: Pagan and Christian		Alexandria's Role during the Imperial Period	197
Contexts	159
In Alexandria: The Mosaic of Sultan Hussein Street	159
In the Sinai Region: The Mosaics of Shaykh Zuweid		Chapter 9: At the Dawn of the Third and of Pelusium	163	Millennium . . . the Mosaic Art Blooms Again
Middle Egypt: The Mosaic of Antinoopolis	170	in Alexandria	201
Mosaics in the Christian Context	170
The monastery of Saint Catherine in Sinai	170	Notes	212
Alexandria and the Mareotid: An archaeological vacuum	173	Catalogue of the Mosaics	215
Kellia: a conservation zone for the decor	173	Appendices	234
Mosaics reproduced in paint in the world of the desert		Concordances	237
hermits, by Denis Weidmann	173	Bibliographic References	241
An opus sectile of glass plaques, by Denis Weidmann	179	Image Credits	253
		Acknowledgments	256