

Women and Religion in Zimbabwe

Strides and Struggles

Edited by Ezra Chitando, Sophia
Chirongoma, and Kudzai Biri

LEXINGTON BOOKS

Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Introduction: Women and Religion in Zimbabwe and the Role of Men Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, and Kudzai Biri	ix
Chapter One: Harnessing Ndaou Religious and Socio-Cultural Beliefs and Practices for Celebrating Women Power in Zimbabwe Macloud Sipeyiye & Elias G. Konyana	1
Chapter Two: Rural Women Utilizing African Indigenous Religion(s) in Environmental Conservation: A Case of Mutasa Area in Mutare Tracey Chirara	11
Chapter Three: Reconfiguring Lost African Religious Tradition: A Feminist Inquiry into Pre-colonial Gender Construction and Its Impact on Shona Society in Post-colonial Zimbabwe Dudzirai Chimeri	27
Chapter Four: African Traditional Religious Women and Reproductive Health: The Case of Mutasa Rural in Mutare Tracey Chirara & Tabona Shoko	45
Chapter Five: Woman, Thou Art Cursed? The Case of SARE in Shona Culture Mavis Muguti & Tawanda Mbewe	61
Chapter Six: Imagining a Church with Equal Opportunities among the Clergy: A Theological and Cultural Dilemma in the Methodist Church in Zimbabwe Martin Mujinga	77

Chapter Seven: Leadership Struggles in the Church: Interfacing and Theologizing the Leadership of Women Clergy in the Methodist Church in Zimbabwe (MCZ) Peter Masvotore & Lindah Tsara	93
Chapter Eight: From Exclusivism to Inclusivism: The Reformed Church in Zimbabwe (RCZ) Rules and Regulations Relating to Women Simbarashe Munamati	107
Chapter Nine: Untying the Cords of Patriarchy: A Critique of Violence against Women and the Role of Pentecostal Women in Leadership Positions in Zimbabwe Kudzai Biri	121
Chapter Ten: Cultures, Women, and the Apostolic Faith Mission in Zimbabwe Francis Machingura & Joyline Gwara	139
Chapter Eleven: Unlocking Judges 13 to Advocate for Women's Leadership in a Patriarchal System Menard Musendekwa	153
Chapter Twelve: "Teacher, This Woman Was Caught in the Very Act of Committing Adultery" (John 8:4b): The Bible, Community, and Genderization of Sin; A Dialogue with the Social Identity Theory Ishanesu Sextus Gusha	165
Chapter Thirteen: Young Christian Women as Agents of Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: A Case Study of Murinye District, Masvingo Sophia Chirongoma	177
Chapter Fourteen: Women's Sexuality: A Tool for Media Advertising in Zimbabwe? Chipo Mable Hatendi & Tapiwa Praise Mapuranga	197
Chapter Fifteen: Religio-Cultural Ideologies, Women, and the Economy: Gender Inequality in the Mining Sector in Zimbabwe Tariro Zhou	207
Chapter Sixteen: The Currency That Buys Peace: Reparation in Gabriel García Márquez's The Sad and Incredible Tale of

Innocent Eréndira and Her Heartless Grandmother (1972) and Charles Mungoshi's 'Sacrifice' (1997) Barbara C. Manyarara	219
Chapter Seventeen: Towards Women's Empowerment in Africa: Insights from the Capability Approach Kevin Shijja Kuhumba	237
Chapter Eighteen: Help/Hindrance? The Role of Religion in Women's Participation in Politics in Zimbabwe Kudakwashe Bryson Kabaira & Blessed Simbarashe Matsita	255
Chapter Nineteen: Ring or Title: Examining the Role of the Church in the Land Co-Ownership Clause Advocacy in Uganda Christine Nakyeyune	269
Index	281
About the Contributors	283