

Contents

Introduction	1
Yael S. Aronoff, Ilan Peleg, and Saliba Sarsar
SECTION I: CONFLICT AND PEACE	9
1 Pathways to Peace: Legitimation of a Two-State Solution	11
Yael S. Aronoff
2 Memory, Identity, and Peace in Palestinian-Israeli Relations	39
Saliba Sarsar
3 Denationalization in the Israel-Palestinian Context	63
Nadav G. Shelef
4 The Ecological Fallacy: “Trust” in International Relations— The Case of the Settlement Freeze in the Oslo Process	85
Yossi Beilin
SECTION II: CHALLENGES TO DEMOCRACY	91
5 Israel’s Democracy at a Turning Point	93
Naomi Chazan
6 Majority-Minority Relations in Deeply Divided Democratic Societies: The Israeli Case in a Globalized Context	117
Ilan Peleg
7 Creating the Public in a Society of Strangers: Inclusion and Exclusion in American Cities	137
Joel Migdal

SECTION III: NATIONAL MEMORY, MEMORIALIZATION, AND DRAMATIZATION	161
8 The Bible Now: Political Satire and National Memory Yael Zerubavel	163
9 Victim Sculpture and an Aesthetic of Basque Politics Roland Vazquez	181
10 Tadeusz Kantor's Theater as an Antidote against the Excesses of Nationalism and Idiocy of State Socialism Jan Kubik	203
Epilogue Myron J. Aronoff	223
Index	235
About the Contributors	245