

The Vatican and Permanent Neutrality

Edited by Marshall J. Breger
and Herbert R. Reginbogin

LEXINGTON BOOKS

Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi
Marshall J. Breger
PART I FROM THE PAPAL STATES TO THE VATICAN: 1870–1929
1 The Holy See and Neutrality: Vatican Diplomacy 1870–1929	3
John F. Pollard
2 The Holy See and Neutrality in the Aftermath of World War I: The Consequences of the Treaty of Versailles and Other Peace Treaties	23
Kurt Martens
3 The Lateran Treaty and the Hermeneutics of the Holy See Neutrality: The Final Defeat of the Papal State and the Roman Question	39
Maria d'Arienzo
PART II THE LONG SECOND WORLD WAR: 1931–1945
4 Neutrality to the Test: The Vatican and the Fascist Wars of the 1930s	63
Lucia Ceci

5	Vatican Diplomacy and Church Realities in the Philippines during World War II Pascal Lottaz	83
6	Pope Pius XII, Vatican Neutrality, and the Holocaust: Case Studies from the Newly Opened Vatican Archives Suzanne Brown-Fleming	105
PART III INTO THE COLD: 1950–1990
7	No Neutrality in Ideology: The Holy See and the Cold War Piotr H. Kosicki	121
8	The Holy See's Efforts to Secure the Departure of Cardinal Mindszenty: Diplomacy in a Cold War Context Arpad von Klimó and Margit Balogh	143
PART IV POST-COLD WAR: 1990–2020
9	Pope Francis and Vatican Sovereignty Massimo Faggioli	161
10	Neutrality as an Aid to Holy See Diplomacy: Iraq and Syria, 1991–2011 Luke Cahill	179
11	The Church and the Bomb: Holy See Diplomacy and Nuclear Weapons Maryann Cusimano Love	203
12	Vatican's / Holy See's Approach to Nonproliferation: The United States and Japan Saho Matsumoto	225
13	Power and Spirituality: The Collision of Canon and International Law Herbert Reginbogin	245
	Appendix	275
	Index	281
	About the Contributors	293