

Contents

Abbreviations and Sigla vii

Preface viii

Acknowledgments viii

Introduction ix

Editorial Methods xiii

Appendix: A Breuiate of the Notes of the Ditties Contained in This Booke xv

A Banquet of Daintie Conceits

Dedication 3

Preface for the Reader 3

1. When I behold the rechles race of youth 5
2. What state so sure, but time subuarts? 12
3. When fond desire, had drawne my mind to Loue 17
4. A Diew my former pleasure 21
5. List a while faire Ladies 24
6. When I sometime begin to thinke vpon 27
7. A Merchaunt of great riches dwelt 30
8. Such men as betake them to pleasure and ease 36
9. Softe fire makes sweete Mault, they say 39
10. Two freends that had a stocke of Corne 43
11. The statelie Pine, whose braunches sprede so faire 46
12. As Iesus went to Galilee 49
13. O What a thing of strength is wine? 54
14. If Wine be strong, what strength haue men 56
15. It neither is the mightie King 58
16. You youthfull heads, whose climing mindes 61
17. It chaunced on a time, that a lewde Theefe 64
18. A Certaine yong man, as I reade 67
19. The Well this man for refuge tooke 71
20. Who list to see a patterne of abuse 74
21. Farewell sweet Fancie 78
22. It was my chaunce to walke abroad 81

Appendix of Related Images 85

List of Sources 89

Manuscript 89

Print 89

Indices 91

Index of First Lines 93

Index of Tunes 94