

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	VII
Index of Cited Authorities.....	XVII
Documentation.....	XXIX
Index of Abbreviations.....	XXXI
Glossary.....	XXXV
Introduction.....	I
I. Reserves.....	3
Preliminary Remarks to Part I.....	5
1. The Notion of Reserves	7
1.1. Open Reserves.....	7
1.1.1. Legal Nature.....	7
1.1.2. Function.....	8
1.1.3. Historical Context and Problems.....	9
1.2. Differences to Similar Concepts.....	9
1.2.1. False Reserves.....	9
1.2.2. Provisions.....	10
(1) A Negative Definition.....	11
(2) Legal Nature and Characteristics.....	12
(3) Mandatory Creation and Dissolution.....	12
(4) The Competence to Create and Dissolve Provisions.....	13
(5) Impact on Taxes.....	13
(a) Impairments.....	14
(b) Reserves.....	14
1.3. Hidden Reserves.....	15
1.3.1. Nature.....	15
1.3.2. Historical Functions.....	16
1.3.3. Types of Hidden Reserves.....	16
(1) Forced Hidden Reserves.....	17
(2) Arbitrary Hidden Reserves.....	19
(a) Reserves for Replacement Purposes.....	19
(b) Reserves That Ensure the Long-Term Prosperity of a Company.....	20
(c) Extended Provisions.....	20
(d) Provisions that are no longer required.....	20
(e) Addendum: Continuous Distribution of Dividends?.....	21
(3) Discretionary Reserves.....	21
(4) Prohibited Hidden Reserves.....	22
(5) Addendum: Cookie Jar Reserves in Common Law.....	22
1.3.4. Creation.....	23
(1) Impact on Profit and Loss Account.....	23
(2) Competence.....	24

1.3.5. Dissolution	24
(1) Neutral to the Profit and Loss Account	25
(2) Affecting the Profit and Loss Account	25
1.3.6. Disclosure	25
(1) Mandatory Disclosure de lege lata	25
(2) Free Disclosure de lege ferenda	27
(3) Associates' Request for Disclosure	27
1.3.7. Impact on Taxes	28
(1) Commercially Unjustified Expenses	28
(2) Realisation of Hidden Reserves	29
2. Classification of Open Reserves	31
2.1. Subdivisions in the Code of Obligations	31
2.1.1. Accounting Reserves	31
(1) Revaluation	31
(a) Historical Origins	32
(b) Comparison with the Standards	34
(c) Rules de lege lata	35
(i) Creation	35
(ii) Dissolution	37
(iii) Disclosure	37
(d) Rules de lege ferenda	38
(e) Position in the CO	39
(2) Fluctuation Reserves	40
(a) Historical Background and Terminology	40
(b) Voluntary Nature	41
(c) Formation and Dissolution	42
(d) Disclosure	43
(3) Negative Reserves?	44
(a) Definition and Terminology	44
(b) Reporting Rules for Own Equity Instruments	45
(i) New Reporting Rules: Proscription on Reporting Own Equity Instruments	45
(ii) Previous Reporting Rules	45
(c) Function	46
(d) Accurate Solution in the CO?	47
(e) Sub-Types	48
(i) Own Shares	48
(ii) Own Capital Contributions	49
2.1.2. Legal Reserves	51
(1) Definition and Function	51
(2) Creation	51
(a) Competence	51
(b) Actual Regulations	52
(i) Allocations	52
(ii) Characteristics of Allocations	53

(3) Subdivisions	54
(a) Capital Reserves	54
(i) Actual Accounting Regulations	54
(ii) Creation of Capital Reserves as per the new Company Regulations	55
(b) Retained Earnings Reserves	56
(i) Creation of Retained Earnings Reserves	56
(ii) Sub-Categories	57
(iii) Sub-Items	58
(4) Dissolution and Utilisation	59
(a) Competence	59
(b) Utilisation	59
(c) Distribution of Agio	61
(5) Holding Companies	63
2.1.3. Voluntary Reserves	63
(1) Reserves Based on the Articles of Association	64
(a) Requirements	64
(b) Articles of Association	65
(c) Formation and Dissolution	66
(d) Special Sub-Type: Staff Welfare	67
(2) Reserves based on a Resolution	67
2.2. Subdivision in Banking Practice	70
2.2.1. Reserves for General Banking Risks as a Special Reserve	70
(1) Nature	70
(2) Notion	70
(3) Competence to Create and Release	71
(4) Impact on Tax	72
(5) Reserves for General Banking Risks or Provisions?	73
(6) Addendum: IFRS Compatibility?	74
2.2.2. Other Reserves in the CO	75
(1) Inapplicable Reserves	75
(2) Applicable Reserves	77
3. Regulation of Reserves	79
3.1. Principles of Financial Reporting	79
3.1.1. Financial Reporting	79
3.1.2. The Authoritative Principle	80
3.1.3. Financial Reporting Principles according to the CO	80
(1) Going Concern Principle	80
(2) Accrual Accounting and the Matching of Revenue and Cost	82
(3) Prudence	84
(a) Realisation Principle	85
(b) Contradiction with Reliable Reporting or the True and Fair View? ...	86
(4) Transparency	87
(a) Reliability, Clarity and Comprehensibility	87
(b) Materiality, Completeness and Relevance	89
(c) Consistency	90
(d) Offsetting Proscription	91

3.2. Specific Financial Markets Regulations	93
3.2.1. Financial and Regulatory Auditing	93
(1) Financial Market Regulation	94
(a) The House of Regulation	94
(i) The Banking Act	94
(a) Legal Nature	94
(b) Scope of Application	95
(i) The Material Scope of Application of the Term "Bank"	95
(ii) Financial Institutions as Securities Firms	96
(c) Territorial Scope	97
(d) Applicability of the CO's Accounting Principles	97
(e) Deviations from the CO	98
(ii) Banking Ordinance	98
(iii) Standards Issued by FINMA	99
(a) FINMA-Circular 2020/01	100
(b) RelV-FINMA	101
(iv) Equity and Liquidity Adequacy Requirements	102
(a) Basel I-III	102
(b) Rules on Own Capital Requirements	102
(c) Liquidity Requirements	104
(d) Impact on Reserves	105
3.2.2. Types of Financial Statement	105
(1) Unlisted Non-Banking and Banking Companies	106
(a) The Choice between Two Types of Single-Entity Financial Statement	106
(b) Financial Statements in accordance with a Recognised Standard?	107
(2) Listed Non-Banking and Banking Companies	108
(3) Consolidated Financial Statements	108
Preliminary Conclusion to Part I	111
II. The Competence to Form and Release Reserves	121
Preliminary Remarks to Part II	123
1. Non-Banking Sector	125
1.1. Companies Limited by Shares	125
1.1.1. Parity Principle	125
(1) Omnipotence Theory or Parity Principle?	125
(2) A Slight Relativisation of the Parity Principle	125
1.1.2. General Assembly	126
(1) Competence to Approve	127
(a) Management Report	127
(b) Annual Accounts	127
(c) Profit Distribution	128
(2) Competence to Decide	129
(a) Allocation to the Reserves	129
(b) Articles of Association	129

(3) Transfer of the Competence to Form and Release Reserves?	130
1.1.3. Board of Directors	130
(1) Remedies.....	130
(2) Competences.....	131
(a) Subsidiary General Competence.....	131
(b) Non-Transferable Competences	131
(i) Overall Management.....	132
(ii) Organisation	132
(iii) Accounting.....	133
(iv) Appointment and Dismissal of Persons Entrusted with Management Duties.....	133
(v) Overall Supervision of Persons Entrusted with Management Duties.....	134
(vi) Compilation of the Annual Report.....	134
(3) Delegation	135
(a) Notion	135
(b) Requirements	135
(c) Delegation to the Managing Directors or the CEO.....	136
(d) Subdelegation	136
(4) Admissibility of a Delegation?.....	137
1.2. Limited Liability Companies.....	138
1.2.1. Nature of Internal Relationships	138
1.2.2. Collective Management Responsibility.....	140
(1) Duties	140
(2) Voting Weight	140
(3) Chairperson	141
1.2.3. The Relativised Parity Principle.....	141
(1) Members' Meeting.....	141
(a) Transferable Competences.....	142
(b) Approvals.....	143
(i) Resolutions by the Management.....	144
(ii) Individual Questions	145
(c) The Right of Veto.....	145
(d) Removal of Managing Directors.....	146
(e) Transfer of Competences?.....	147
(2) Management / Executive Committee	147
(a) Remedies.....	147
(b) Subsidiary General Competences	148
(i) Overall Management.....	148
(ii) Organisation	149
(iii) Organising the Accounting.....	149
(iv) Supervision	150
(v) Annual Report.....	150
(c) Delegation.....	150
(i) Notion.....	151
(ii) Requirements	152
(iii) Subdelegation	152
(3) Admissibility of a Delegation?.....	153

1.3. Cooperatives	154
1.3.1. Specific Characteristics	154
(1) Nominal Capital	155
(2) Nature of the Entity	155
1.3.2. Rights of the Members	156
(1) Legal Status of the Members	156
(2) Equality and Voting	156
(3) Distribution of Net Profit	156
(a) No Distribution	157
(b) Distribution	157
1.3.3. General Assembly	158
(1) Expansion of Competences by the Administration	158
(a) Ballot	158
(b) Assembly of Delegates	159
(2) Decision-Making	159
(3) An Inalienable Competence?	160
(a) Profit Distribution	160
(b) Allocation to the Reserves	161
(i) Statutory Reserves	161
(ii) Allocations as per the Articles of Association	162
(c) Delegation of Competences?	162
1.3.4. The Administration or Board	163
(1) Collegial Management	163
(2) Competences	164
(3) Delegation	164
(4) Delegation of a Delegated Competence?	165
2. Banking Sector	167
2.1. Bank Categories	167
2.2. Selected Categories of Banks	168
2.2.1. Companies Limited by Shares – Banks	168
(1) The Banking Act as lex specialis	168
(2) Dual Corporate Governance	168
(3) Transferability of the Board's Competences	169
(4) Financial Accounting	169
(5) Presumption of Competences	170
(6) Use of Profit	171
2.2.2. Cooperative Banks	171
(1) General Considerations	171
(2) Banking Act	172
(3) Addendum: Corporate Governance?	172
(4) Credit Cooperatives	173
(a) Profit Distribution	173
(b) Creation and Dissolution of Reserves	174
Preliminary Conclusion and Results to Part II	175

III. Effects of Reserves	185
Preliminary Remarks to Part III.....	187
1. Capital Protection and Minimum Intervention Moments	189
1.1. Company Limited by Shares.....	189
1.1.1. Non-Banking Companies Limited by Shares.....	189
(1) Capital Loss.....	189
(a) Calculation.....	189
(b) Reserve Allowance	190
(c) Measures	191
(2) Over-Indebtedness	192
(a) Calculation of Over-Indebtedness and Reserves.....	192
(b) Notifying the Courts.....	193
1.1.2. Banking Companies Limited by Shares.....	193
(1) Capital Loss.....	193
(2) Creation of Reserves or Provisions?.....	194
(3) Impact of Reserves on the Moment of Intervention.....	195
1.2. Limited Liability Companies.....	196
1.3. Cooperatives	197
2. Reserves based on the Articles of Association and the New Capital Band	199
2.1. Capital Band in the CO	199
2.1.1. Definition.....	199
2.1.2. Creditors' Protection	200
2.1.3. Comparison to Reserves	200
2.2. Additional Capital in Banks.....	200
3. Delegation of the Competence to Revoke the Subscription Right.....	203
3.1. Delegability of Competences	203
3.2. Delegation requirements	205
3.3. Shareholders' Rights.....	206
3.4. Legal Remedies.....	206
Preliminary Conclusion to Part III	207
Critical Reflections and Main Conclusions	211
Curriculum Vitae	217