

Pathways
of Art

How Objects Get to the Museum

Museum
Rietberg

Edited by Esther Tisa Francini,
with the collaboration of Sarah Csernay

Scheidegger
& Spiess

Pathways of Art

- 5 Foreword
Annette Bhagwati
- 9 Pathways of Art
Introduction
Esther Tisa Francini

Collecting

- 87 Introduction
- 89 Power through Art
Imperial collecting in China
Kim Karlsson
- 97 "Wild Things" in the Villa
The Oceania Collection of Sidney W. Brown
Sarah Csernay
- 113 Multiple Displacements
National Socialist cultural policy and the Nell Walden Collection
Esther Tisa Francini
- 123 The Fascination with Iran in the 1930s
Rudolf Schmidt and the collecting of the Luristan bronzes
Esther Tisa Francini
- 139 Split, Donate, and Export Alice Boner's efforts to preserve her art collection in India and Switzerland
Johannes Beltz

Acquiring

- 19 Introduction
- 21 From Libraries to the Museum
The illustrated pharmacopoeia Ikhtiyārāt-i Badī'ī by Hajji Zayn
al-'Attar
Rosine Vuille
- 29 An Aztec Rattlesnake, the Shadow of Alexander von Humboldt, and the Limitations of Provenance Research
David Blankenstein
- 37 Tlingit Sun Mask Approaching the history of an object from multiple perspectives
Mira Jossen
- 47 Traces of Colonial Injustice Collaborative provenance research into artworks from the Kingdom of Benin
Michaela Oberhofer
and Esther Tisa Francini
- 67 The Art of Diplomacy Gift exchange in the Kingdom of Bamum
Michaela Oberhofer

Displaying

- 159 Introduction
- 161 The Life Story of Chinese Bronzes
Alice Yu Cheng
- 177 Canonization and the Cult of Relics
The Ardabil carpet and its remnant in Museum Rietberg
Axel Langer
- 183 From Stage to Museum
Modes of presentation for Nō masks
Esther Tisa Francini
and Khanh Trinh
- 195 The Werner Reinhart Collection and the Reception of Indian Miniature Paintings in Switzerland
Rosine Vuille
- 211 "Suspended before a white background, I exist."
Photography and the creation of the canon of African art in the Global North
Nanina Guyer

Table of Contents

Dealing

- 231 Introduction
- 233 Hayashi Tadamasa and the Creation of a Market for Japanese Art Brigitte Koyama-Richard
- 249 C. T. Loo
Art dealer and cultural mediator
Alexandra von Przychowski
- 259 The Business of Art
Iconoclasm in Côte d'Ivoire and the trade practices of Swiss gallerist, Emil Storrer
Esther Tisa Francini
- 275 From Ritual Object to Work of Art
The routes of Tibetica to the museum
Martin Brauen

Fragmenting

- 295 Introduction
- 297 Stories from the Edge
The reconstruction of Islamic painting and calligraphy albums with the help of borders
Axel Langer
- 311 Antoine-Louis Henri Polier in India
Patron, collector, enlightened art lover?
Claire Brizon
- 319 Local and Global Trading of Pre-Hispanic Andean Textiles Insights into the collection
Cecilia Pardo
- 335 Buddha Heads and the Reception of Chinese Buddhist Art at the Beginning of the 20th Century
Alexandra von Przychowski
- 351 Market and Manipulation
The "beautification" of Chinese tomb pottery by art dealers
Alexandra von Przychowski

Knowing

- 363 Introduction
- 365 From Stone Lake to Lake Zurich
The 400-year journey of a Chinese painting
Kim Karlsson
- 379 Research That Gets under the Skin
The rôle of conservation-restoration in object analysis
Axel Langer
- 387 The History of a Maya Relief
The tension between transfer of cultural property and knowledge production Christian M. Prager and Antje Grothe
- 407 A Collaboration in Art-Ethnography
Haku Shah and Eberhard Fischer in Gujarat, 1965 to 1972
Eberhard Fischer
- 423 When Instruments Sing Again
Collaborative research and exhibiting
Johannes Beltz

- 433 Authors
- 435 Image Credits
- 437 Imprint