

Handbook Hittite Empire

Power Structures

Edited by Stefano de Martino

DE GRUYTER
OLDENBOURG

Table of Contents

Foreword — VII

Peoples, Languages, and Written Documents

Ilya Yakubovich

1 Peoples and Languages — 3

Clelia Mora

2 Anatolian Hieroglyphic Documentation — 45

Jörg Klinger

3 The Hittite Writing Traditions of Cuneiform Documents — 93

Environment

Andreas Schachner

4 Geographical Prerequisites versus Human Behavior: Settlement Geography, Rural Economy, and Ideological Aspects of Anthropogenic Relations with the Natural Environment during the Second Millennium BC in Central Anatolia — 159

Power and Governance

Stefano de Martino

5 Hatti: From Regional Polity to Empire — 205

Elena Devecchi

6 The Governance of the Subordinated Countries — 271

Theo van den Hout

7 Elites and the Social Stratification of the Ruling Class in the Hittite Kingdom — 313

Daniel Schwemer
8 Religion and Power — 355

Materiality of Power

Andreas Schachner
9 Building for King and Country: Architecture as a Symbol of the Hittite Empire — 421

The Hittite King in Written and Visual Evidence

Metin Alparslan and Meltem Doğan-Alparslan
10 Hittite Kings: Self-presentation and Historiography — 469

Sanna Aro
11 Images of the Hittite King — 497

Features of the Economy of the Hittite State

Jörg Klinger
12 Hittite Economics — 605

Dirk Paul Mielke
13 Hittite Pottery: Research, Corpus and Social Significance — 649

Reception

Silvia Alaura
14 Rediscovery and Reception of the Hittites: An Overview — 693

List of Contributors — 781

Index of Names — 785