

Desire in the Iliad

The Force That Moves the Epic and Its Audience

RACHEL H. LESSER

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
The Characters' Triangular Desires	3
The Plot(s) of the Iliad and This Book	9
Narrative Desire	12
Sympathetic and Empathetic Desires	17
Pain, Pleasure, and Satisfaction	22
1. Triangles of Desire at the Iliad 's Opening	26
The First Triangle: Chryses, Chryseis, and Agamemnon	26
Kalchas' Inflammatory Mediation	30
The Second Triangle: Achilles, Briseis, and Agamemnon	33
Pothē for Achilles	39
Nestor's Ineffective Intervention	41
2. Achilles' Plot and Divine Determination	47
Achilles' Narrative Agency	47
Chryses' Paradigmatic Resolution	51
Back to Achilles—and Zeus	54
A Third, Divine Triangle of Desire	57
Hephaistos as Mediator	63
Evaluating the Divine Resolution	66
3. The Superplot's Beginning	70
From the Main Plot to the Superplot	70
Why the Greek Army Fights	72
The Desires of Menelaos and Paris	74
Helen as Subject of Desire	79
The Triangle of Helen, Paris, and Aphrodite	88
Paris' Desire, Again	95
4. The Desire for War and Its Discontents	99
The Divine Determinants of War	99
Allegiance and Alignment with the Greeks	105
Diomedes' Aristeia	109
The Gods' Involvement in the Battle	113
The Trojan Women's Desires	118
Andromache's Proleptic Longing	123
5. The Renewal of Achilles' Destructive Desires	129
From the Superplot to the Main Plot	129
The Embassy to Achilles: Reconciliation or an Insult Revisited?	133

X TABLE OF CONTENTS

The Revival and Modification of Achilles' Desires	140
Phoinix's Speech	144
Achilleus' Obstinacy	151
6. The Oppositional Desires of Hera and Patroklos	155
The Progression of Achilles' Plot through Zeus's Will	155
Hera's Plot	159
The Deception of Zeus	166
Zeus's Revised Will	170
Patroklos' Challenge to Achilles' Plot	173
Patroklos' Aristeia	179
7. Achilles' Mourning and Revenge	184
Achilleus' New Triangular Desires	184
An Incomplete and Unsatisfactory Resolution	190
The Queerness of Achilles' Attachment to Patroklos	195
Achilleus' Aristeia	201
Achilleus Meets Hektor	208
8. Desire for Lamentation	214
Priam's and Hekabe's Desires	214
Andromache's Melancholic Mourning	218
Achilleus' Persistent Mourning	221
Approaching the End	228
Resolutions of Desire	232
Audience (Dis)satisfaction	239
Bibliography	243
Index	257