

Reflections

Understanding Our Use and Abuse of Water

Mark Zeitoun

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Abbreviations	xi
Introduction: Beneath the Surface	1
1. Misunderstood Water	7
Water cycles	9
Water problems are local	15
Scarcity is constructed	17
Rain is commodified	18
2. Insatiable Thirst	20
The mission	21
Hydraulic societies	21
The supply	23
The infrastructure	25
Lubricating colonisation	30
The thirst	33
Water for the wealthy	34
From crops per drop to dollars per drop	37
Desert bloom syndrome	40
Not solutions	42
Shade balls	43
Desalting the sea to bloom the desert	44
Sugar water	46
Bottled water	47
3. Killer Water	51
Everlasting conflict	52
A tool of war	55
Hunting thirsty gazelles	55
Clearing the killing fields	58
Ethnic cleansing	59
A target of war	62
Cumulative impact	62
Spreading disease	65
Toxic biospheres of war	68
The Rules of War	70

4. Hostile Waters	74
Why we don't wage war over water	75
Why we don't wage peace over water	77
Confusing correlation with causation	77
Lazy thinking about 'cooperation'	79
Why we do fight over water	81
Hoarding on the Tigris and Euphrates	82
Hoarding on the Nile	85
Hoarding on the Jordan	90
The rules for sharing water	93
Conclusion: Water Whilst It is in Our Hands	96
 Bibliography	 103
Index	115