

Relation and Resistance

Racialized Women, Religion, and Diaspora

Edited by

SAILAJA V. KRISHNAMURTI
AND BECKY R. LEE

McGill-Queen's University Press
Montreal & Kingston • London • Chicago

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

- 1 Introduction: Conceptualizing the Study of Women and Diasporic Religion 3
Sailaja V. Krishnamurti and Becky R. Lee

PART ONE NAVIGATING RELIGION, NATION, AND IDENTITY

- 2 Grounded Religiosities: Women Navigating Hindu Identity and Social Justice 19
Sailaja V. Krishnamurti
- 3 Writing Home: Diaspora, Identity, and Religion in Halfbreed and In Search of April Raintree 45
Ken Derry
- 4 The Role of Women in the Pre-Second World War Japanese
Diaspora in Canada 74
Cary Takagaki
- 5 Diasporic Sikh Women: Negotiating Gender Equality
in Montreal 93
Julie Vig

PART TWO WOMEN IN TRANSNATIONAL RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES

- 6 Diaspora as a Spectrum: Punjabi-Sikh Subjects and the Gendered Context of Diaspora Membership 117
Preet Kaur Virdi
- 7 Chinese Buddhist Nuns in Canada: From Subservience to Spiritual Leadership 147
Henry Shiu
- 8 Syrian Malabar Christian Diaspora in Canada: Women and the Rebuilding of Faith 170
Lina Samuel
- 9 Muslim Model Minorities and the Politics of Diasporic Piety 191
Nadia Z. Hasan

PART THREE BUILDING RELATIONS, IMAGINING
FUTURES

- 10 Brown Girl in the Ring: Caribbean Subversive Knowledges and the Discourse of Canadian Citizenship 217
Andrea A. Davis
- 11 Towards a Canadian Islam: The Change-Making Power of Young Muslim Women 237
Rima Berns-McGown
- 12 Diaspora, Spirituality, Kinship, and Nationhood: A Métis
Woman's Perspective 259
Chantal Fiola

Contributors 281

Index 285