

NEW LEADERS, NEW DAWNS?

South Africa and Zimbabwe under Cyril Ramaphosa and Emmerson Mnangagwa

Edited by

Chris Brown, David Moore, and Blair Rutherford

McGill-Queen's University Press
Montreal & Kingston • London • Chicago

Contents

Preface ix

Introduction: New Leaders, New Dawns? South Africa and Zimbabwe under Cyril Ramaphosa and Emmerson Mnangagwa 3
Chris Brown

PART ONE GLOBAL AND REGIONAL CONTEXT

1 South Africa and Zimbabwe: Change and Continuity 29
Linda Freeman

2 On Rethinking Liberation Struggle, Liberation Support ... and the Sudden Fall of Mugabe and Zuma 58
John S. Saul

3 BRICS and South-South Cooperation: South African, Indian and Brazilian Mining Projects in Mozambique 78
Judith Marshall

PART TWO SOUTH AFRICA

4 Ramaphosa's New Dawn: Confronting the ANC's Mafia State 115
Roger Southall

5 Swept Along: The Left in Post-Apartheid South Africa 138
Hein Marais

6 What "ANC Hegemony"? The ANC's Failure to Deliver Has Resulted in Failed Hegemony 179
Carolyn Bassett and Allyson Fradella

7 Labour's Decline: Precarious Employment, Labour Politics, and Trade Union Organizing in South Africa 203
Marlea Clarke

PART THREE ZIMBABWE

- 8 Unravelling Zimbabwe's January Jambanja:
Truth, Lies, Rumours and Conspiracies 237
David Moore
- 9 The Political Economy and Cultural Politics of Zimbabwe's Land:
A Primer for the Post-Mugabe Era 273
Blair Rutherford
- 10 Truncated Transitions: Elite Politics, Business Resilience, and Continuities of Power in Zimbabwe's Minerals Sector 302
Richard Saunders
- 11 Education in Post-Independence Zimbabwe:
Triumph, Decline, Collapse 324
Mary Ndllovu
- Denouement: From Grey Dawns to the Shadows at Dusk 352
David Moore and Susan Booysen
- Contributors 367
- Index 371