

Contents

List of figures	ix
List of tables	xvii
List of contributors	xix
Introduction	1
PART 1
Ancient history through the seventeenth century: gods, dwarfs, and warriors	7
1 Hephaestus represented: a mêtis-based inquiry SARA NEWMAN	9
2 The role of dwarfs in Tang postmortem elite life LESLIE V. WALLACE	24
3 Disability and poverty at the Brancacci Chapel STEPHANIE R. MILLER	37
4 Disability at the edge of war: gendered violence in the graphic practice of Urs Graf JESS BAILEY	54
PART 2
Seventeenth-century Spain to the American Civil War: misfits, wounded bodies, and medical specimens	71
5 Destierro and Desengaño: the disabled body in Golden Age Spanish portraiture COLIN SANBORN	73

6	An inartistic interest: Civil War medicine, disability, and the art of Thomas Eakins	87
	JESSICA A. COOLEY
7	Empty sleeves and bloody shirts: disabled American Civil War veterans and presidential campaigns, 1864–1880	104
	ERIN R. CORRALES-DIAZ
PART 3
	Modernism, metaphor, and corporeality	121
8	Deaf gain: Toulouse-Lautrec’s early training with René Princeteau	123
	ALEXANDRA COURTOIS DE VIÇOSE
9	Manet’s syphilis: masculinity, debility, and adaptation in the 1880s	140
	ALLISON LEIGH
10	Facially disfigured veterans of World War I in present-day art: an art historical analysis against the background of medical history	157
	ANNE MARNO
11	Disability metaphor and American individualism: beyond The Glass Menagerie	172
	TIMOTHY W. HILES
12	“Building the World of Tomorrow”: disability, eugenics, and sculpture at the 1939 New York World’s Fair	187
	KERI WATSON
13	Aesthetics of disability and the hybrid body in Louise Bourgeois’s Femme Maison	204
	LYNN M. SOMERS
PART 4
	Contemporary art: crips, care, and portraiture	221
14	Listening to the queer-crip body of Derek Jarman’s Blue	223
	YETTA HOWARD

15 Collaborative portraiture: a feminist disability studies approach to the work of Riva Lehrer and Tanya Raabe-Webber	236
LUCIENNE AUZ
16 Performing Disability and Endurance: on Carolyn Lazard's Support System (for Tina, Park, and Bob)	252
JULES PELTA FELDMAN
Index	269