

Communities of Care

THE SOCIAL ETHICS
OF VICTORIAN FICTION

Talia Schaffer

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS
PRINCETON & OXFORD

CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgments · xi

|           |   |     |
|-----------|---|-----|
|           | Introduction: Care Communities Today  | 1   |
| CHAPTER 1 | Ethics of Care and the Care Community                                       | 28  |
| CHAPTER 2 | Austen, Dickens, and Brontë: Bodiesbefore the Normate                   | 60  |
| CHAPTER 3 | Global Migrant Care and Emotional Laborin Villette               | 88  |
| CHAPTER 4 | Beyond Sympathy: The State of Carein Daniel Deronda              | 117 |
| CHAPTER 5 | Care Meets the Silent Treatment inThe Wings of the Dove          | 140 |
| CHAPTER 6 | Composite Fiction and the CareCommunity in The Heir of Redclyffe | 160 |
|           | Epilogue: Critical Care   | 189 |

Notes · 219

Works Cited · 243

Index · 267