

Every Leaf, Line, and Letter

Evangelicals and the Bible from the 1730s to the Present

Edited by Timothy Larsen

Introduction by Thomas S. Kidd

An imprint of InterVarsity Press
Downers Grove, Illinois

Contents

|                                     |   |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| Introduction— Thomas S. Kidd | 1 |
|-------------------------------------|---|

Part One: The Eighteenth Century

|                                                                                                                         |    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1. British Exodus, American Empire: Evangelical Preachers and the Biblicisms of Revolution— Kristina Benham      | 9  |
| 2. Lectio Evangelica : Figural Interpretation and Early Evangelical Bible Reading— Bruce Hindmarsh        | 32 |
| 3. Faith, Free Will, and Biblical Reasoning in the Thought of Jonathan Edwards and John Erskine— Jonathan Yeager | 55 |

Part Two: The Nineteenth Century

|                                                                                                                                                        |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 4. “Young People Are Actually Becoming Accurate Bible Theologians”: Children’s Bible Culture in Early Nineteenth-Century America— K. Elise Leal | 77  |
| 5. Missouri, Denmark Vesey, Biblical Proslavery, and a Crisis for Sola Scriptura — Mark A. Noll                                          | 97  |
| 6. Josephine Butler’s Mystic Vision and Her Love for the Jesus of the Gospels— Mary Riso                                                        | 123 |

Part Three: The Twentieth Century

|                                                                                                               |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 7. The Bible Crisis of British Evangelicalism in the 1920s— David Bebbington                           | 153 |
| 8. Liberal Evangelicals and the Bible— Timothy Larsen                                                  | 172 |
| 9. “The Only Way to Stop a Mob”: Francis Grimké’s Biblical Case for Lynching Resistance— Malcolm Foley | 196 |

|                                                                                                                                                          |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 10. "As at the Beginning": Charismatic Renewal andthe Reanimation of Scripture in Britain andNew Zealand in the "Long" 1960s— John Maiden | 218 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

Part Four: Into the Twenty-First Century

|                                                                                                                            |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 11. The American Patriot's Bible : Evangelicals, the Bible,and American Nationalism— Catherine A. Brekus | 245 |
| 12. The Evangelical Christian Mind in Historyand Global Context— Brian Stanley                                  | 276 |
| Acknowledgments— Thomas S. Kidd                                                                                     | 303 |
| Contributors                                                                                                               | 305 |
| General Index                                                                                                              | 309 |
| Scripture Index                                                                                                            | 315 |