

Comparing Armed Conflicts

Edited by
Bruno Charbonneau and Adam Sandor

Contents

Citation Information	vi
Notes on Contributors	viii
Introduction: Power and Comparative Methods: Performing the Worlds of Armed Conflicts Bruno Charbonneau and Adam Sandor	1
1 The Importance of Context When Comparing Civil Wars William Reno	12
2 Comparing Conflict-related Sexual Violence: Expertise, Politics and Documentation Róisín Read	32
3 Fanning the Flames or a Troubling Truth? The Politics of Comparison in the Israel-Palestine Conflict Mandy Turner	53
4 Privileged Sphere of Comparison: Empire, Methods and Conflict Intervention Bruno Charbonneau	78
5 The Middle East is Violence: On the Limits of Comparative Approaches to the Study of Armed Conflict Jacob Mundy	103
6 Normative Scaling and Crisis Knowledge: The Problematic Use of Selective Analogies to Compare Conflicts Florian P. Kühn	133
7 Sahelistan? Military Intervention and Patronage Politics in Afghanistan and Mali Romain Malejacq and Adam Sandor	158
Index	183