

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Contributors	x
List of acronyms and abbreviations	xvii
List of statutes, treaties, and cases	xxvii
 Introduction	 1
 PART I
Legal pluralism and African legal systems	15
 1 Legal pluralism in Africa: Three levels and seven types of law Raymond A. Atuguba	 17
 2 Customary marriages and the South African Constitution: The recent developments Sipho Nkosi	 53
 3 Gods at war: Religion and law-making Reseline K. Njogu	 78
 4 Pluralism and the tenor of bankruptcy legislation in West African societies Samuel Boati Adarkwah	 100
 5 Common law in Kenya Duncan M. Okubasu	 114
 6 The evolution of property rights to land in postcolonial Buganda Olive Sabuni	 129

PART II

The State, institutions, constitutionalism, and democratic governance 151

- 7 One nation, multiple identities: Ethnicity, inclusivity, and constitution-making 153
Muna Ndulo
- 8 Democratic transitions in Africa: The issue of civil resistance and unconstitutional change of government 179
Lydia A. Nkansah
- 9 Freedom of expression in Zambia revisited 196
Sangwani Patrick Ng'ambi
- 10 Mapping the legal contours of presidential electoral law in Kenya: A case review of Raila Odinga v. Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission Presidential Election 1 of 2017 215
Luis Franceschi and Emmah Wabuke
- 11 The unconstitutional change of government normative framework in Africa: Do elections matter? 230
O'Brien Kaaba
- 12 Commissions of inquiry and the quest for a greater accountability in health care delivery in Africa: A Ghanaian perspective 247
Ernest Owusu-Dapaa
- 13 The effectiveness and predictability of social security law: Constitutional perspectives from the Republic of South Africa 264
Letlhokwa George Mpedi
- 14 Rule of law with African characteristics 278
Salvatore Mancuso

PART III

Economic development, technology, trade, and investment 291

- 15 Law and the regulation of new technologies in Africa 293
Olufunmilayo B. Arewa and Ayodeji O. Fakolade

16	The East African community's used clothing policy and international trade law Chantal Thomas	309
17	Technology, legal information, and access to justice in Africa Femi Cadmus	324
18	Show me the money: Evaluating the significance of traditional knowledge and cultural expressions in the context of foreign direct investment outflows Anthony C. K. Kakooza	337
19	Labor law, labor market regulation, and social protection in sub-Saharan Africa: Emerging trends in comparative perspective Chanda Chungu and Evance Kalula	347
20	The Pan-African Investment Code and its impact on investments and resource extraction in Africa Dunia P. Zongue	361
PART IV
Human rights, gender-based violence, and access to justice		379
21	The ECOWAS citizen in a dilemma: The role of the ECOWAS Court of Justice in the promotion of human rights in West Africa George Asare-Afriyie	381
22	When criminal law is not enough: Toward a holistic approach to gender-based violence prevention and response in Zambia and beyond Elizabeth Brundige and Tincenji Banda	392
23	African law and the rights of sexual minorities: Western universalism and African resistance Nicholas Kahn-Egdel	407
24	Developing effective money laundering laws in Africa: Dealing with corrupt, politically exposed persons John Hatchard	425
25	Citizenship, rights, and political subjectivity in Eritrea Kibrom Tewechebirhan and Laureen Dinar	442

PART V

International law, institutions, and international criminal law 473

- 26 Addressing serious crimes of global concern in Africa: Dribbling
around the problem 475
Chris Maina Peter
- 27 South Africa's contribution to international criminal justice 491
Ntombizozo Dyani-Mhango
- 28 Stateless and rightless? An appraisal of standards and practices on prevention of statelessness and protection of stateless persons in Africa 511
Juliana Masabo
- 29 Abducted, inducted, and indicted: The case of Dominic Ongwen in the International Criminal Court 528
Simeon P. Sungi and George R. Kakoti
- 30 From Brussels to Addis Ababa: A contextual and comparative analysis of access to justice under private international law in Africa 542
Pontian N. Okoli
- 31 An assessment of the right of individuals to access the Southern African Development Community Tribunal 565
Onkemetse Tshosa
- 32 Beyond formalism and uti possidetis: The International Court of Justice and boundary disputes in Africa 580
Cosmas Emeziem

Index 609