

Christ Returns from the Jungle

Ayahwasca Religion as Mystical Healing

Marc G. Blainey

SUNY
P R E S S

Contents

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	xiii
PREFACE	xix
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xxvii

PART I

FRAMING AND TACKLING THE QUESTION: WHY SANTO DAIME IN EUROPE?

CHAPTER 1
Introduction	5
CHAPTER 2
How the Outsider Can Understand Daimista Insiders	35

PART II

FROM AMAZONIA WITH LOVE

CHAPTER 3
Tracing Origins	59
CHAPTER 4
The Current State of Santo Daime Studies: Brazil and Beyond	11

CHAPTER 5
Passage to "Heaven" of Mapiá	91

PART III BACK TO THE OLD WORLD

CHAPTER 6
Santo Daime and the Re-Enchantment of Europe	107
CHAPTER 7
National Profiles	121

PART IV SANTO DAIME "WORKS"

CHAPTER 8
Framework for Curing the Ego	173
CHAPTER 9
Eclectic Symbolisms of Santo Daime Ideology	201
CHAPTER 10
Being-in-the-Astral: An Auto-Ethnography of Ethnophenomenology	225

PART V THE MYSTICAL TECHNOLOGY OF SANTO DAIME RITUALS

CHAPTER 11
A Key to Solutions	245
CHAPTER 12
Fardados' Conception of Santo Daime as a Mystical Path	267

PART VI FARDADOS' EXISTENTIAL VALUES

CHAPTER 13
Timeless Wisdom	289
CHAPTER 14
The Aims of Santo Daime Perennialism	327

PART VII APPLYING ANTHROPOLOGY TO PUBLIC DEBATES ABOUT AYAHUASCA

CHAPTER 15
The Cosmopolitics of Entheogenic Healing	359
CHAPTER 16
Closing Remarks: Toward Mutual Respect and Toleration	391

APPENDICES

APPENDIX I
Glossary of Portuguese Santo Daime Terms	409
APPENDIX II
Liturgical Calendar of Santo Daime	413
APPENDIX III
Master List of Sacred Plants (Europe-wide Sample)	415
APPENDIX IV
Master List of Great Spiritual Teachers (Belgian Sample)	419
APPENDIX V
Master List of Great Spiritual Teachers (Europe-wide Sample)	433
APPENDIX VI
Triad Test Results and Statistics	439

NOTES	443
BIBLIOGRAPHY	475
INDEX	519

Illustrations

Figures

- 0.1 Christ in the Wine Press, By: Hieronymus Wierix (1619);
Image copyright © The Metropolitan Museum of Art,
Image source: Art Resource, NY. vi
- 1.1 The First Approach of the Serpent, engraving by Gustave Doré (1866), published with permission from the Bibliothèque nationale de France (BnF). 2
- 1.2 The European continent; countries in which Santo Daime congregations exist indicated by a double-armed cross (following the precedent set in Labate and Araújo [2004, 614; with Sandra Goulart]); black boxes indicate countries whose citizens attend Daime works in Amsterdam. 21
- 3.1. Execution of the Inca of Peru by Pizarro, By: Alonzo Chappel
(1533). Credit: Wellcome Collection (Creative Commons). 56
- 3.2 A cup of freshly made Daime tea—still warm, collected after the author participated in a feitio ritual at Céu do Mapiá in the Brazilian Amazon (Photo by author). 60
- 3.3 Map of ayahuasca vegetation and use in South America
(assembled by the author with reference to Gates [1982,
117/212]; Luna [1986, 167–170]; Global Biodiversity
Information Facility: <https://www.gbif.org/species/2921300>).
For comparison, see Highpine (2008). 65

- 3.4 Portrait of Mestre Irineu (1890–1971); painted by Joanna Wernink; often displayed in the ritual space during Daime works in Amsterdam (published with permission). 72
- 3.5 Portrait of Padrinho Sebastião (1920–1990); painted by Joanna Wernink; often displayed in the ritual space during Daime works in Amsterdam (published with permission). 78
- 3.6 Portrait of Madrinha Rita (1925– ); painted by Joanna Wernink; often displayed in the ritual space during Daime works in Amsterdam (published with permission). 79
- 5.1 Females carefully clean bugs and other impurities off of the Rainha leaves (photo by Dutch fardada, published with permission). 95
- 5.2 The men crush the Jagube vines with wooden mallets—bateção (photo by Dutch fardada, published with permission). 95
- 5.3 The hammering action of bateção creates a vine pulp (photo by Dutch fardada, published with permission). 96
- 5.4 The mixture of the vine and leaf plant materials is boiled in water using wood burning ovens (photo by the author). 97
- 6.1 Europe as a Queen, By: Sebastian Münster (1588); Source: Digital Collections, The Newberry Library (Public Domain). 104
- 6.2 Double-armed cross at Céu do Mapiá, Brazil (photo by the author). 120
- 8.1 Christ and angel with chalice on Mount of Olives (Gethsemane), By: Pieter de Bailliu, after Peter P. Rubens (1660); Published with permission from The British Museum. 170
- 8.2 An overhead view of a dancing work at Céu da Santa Maria in Amsterdam (photo by a Belgian fardado, published with permission). 175
- 8.3 The hand-held maracá is the main percussive instrument in Santo Daime music (photo by a Belgian fardado, published with permission). 176
- 8.4 The ritual space of Daime works involves rows of chairs organized in a hexagonal shape. All face the central star-shaped

- table. On the table are placed a cross sculpture (in the middle), candles, flowers, incense, a maracá, and hymnbooks; for dancing works, chairs are removed and participants stand in the same hexagonal layout (photo by the author). 176
- 8.5 The “star” broach—as an official insignia, fardados “receive their star” in the fardamento initiation rite (photo by a Belgian fardado, published with permission). 178
- 8.6 Fundamentals of the Blue and White fardas as worn by female and male fardados (photos by a Belgian fardado, published with permission). 179
- 8.7 Wordcloud for all hymns in Mestre Irineu’s hymnal O Cruzeiro (“The Cross”). The most frequently cited words include mãe (“mother”), virgem (“virgin”), deus (“God”), vós (“you”), sempre (“always”), todos (“all”), amor (“love”), and filho (“child”). 197
- 8.8 A wordcloud from Pd. Sebastião’s hymnal O Justiceiro (“The Justice Maker”). The most frequently cited words include mestre (“master”), irmãos (“brothers”), pai (“father”), and aqui (“here”). 197
- 8.9 A wordcloud from Flores de São João (“Flowers of St. John”), a well-known hymnal by Brazilian fardada Cristina Tati. The most frequently cited words include marcha (“march”), vamos (“let’s go”), vou (“I will”), and coração (“heart”). 197
- 8.10 A wordcloud from A Pilgrimage to the Angelic Realm (a hymnal received in English by Frederik, a Belgian fardado in Céu da União). The most frequently cited words include “light,” “angel,” “sacred/holy,” and “soul.” 198
- 8.11 A wordcloud from Doçura da Luz (“Sweetness of the Light”), a hymnal received by Cécile, the commander of the Belgian church Céu do Arco-Íris. The most frequently cited words include luz (“light”), amor (“love”), deus (“God”), Jesus, and verdade (“truth”). 198
- 9.1 Le serpent d’airain [“The brazen serpent”], engraving by: Gustave Doré (1878), published with permission from the Bibliothèque nationale de France (BnF). 208

9.2	Marian Fatima figurine on the altar at an outdoor Daime work in Portugal (photo by the author).	209
9.3	Statue of the archangel St. Michael, near Place Ste. Catherine, Brussels (photo by the author).	222
11.1	Celestial Rose: Dante and Beatrice gaze upon the highest Heaven (The Empyrean), engraving by Gustave Doré (1869), Canto XXXI, Paradise, Divine Comedy by Dante Alighieri (1265–1321). Published with permission from the Bibliothèque nationale de France (BnF).	242
13.1	Michael Foretelling the Crucifixion to Adam (Illustration to Milton's " Paradise Lost "), William Blake (1808), Photograph © 2019 Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.	286
13.2	Hierarchical cluster analysis of triads from Belgian fardados' GST domain.	317
13.3	A graph based on the output of triads for Belgian fardados' GST domain; the image combines a multidimensional scaling map with results from the hierarchical cluster analysis.	317
15.1	Europe supported by Africa and America , By: William Blake (1796), © Victoria and Albert Museum, London.	356
16.1	Souls of Warriors of the Faith form a Cross , engraving by Gustave Doré (1869), Divine Comedy by Dante Alighieri (1265–1321). Published with permission from the Bibliothèque nationale de France (BnF).	407
A.1	Triad Test results for top ten "Great Spiritual Teachers" (GST) from freelists (n = 26 Belgian fardados).	439
A.2	GST Triad Multidimensional Scaling Map	440
A.3	GST Triad Hierarchical Cluster Graph	441
A.4	GST Triad Consensus Analysis	441

Tables

7.1	Summary of Santo Daime's International Profile in Europe	166
-----	--	-----

11.1 European Fardados' Sacred Plants Domain ranked by Smith's s	247
13.1 Belgian Fardados' Domain of Great Spiritual Teachers Ranked by Smith's s	296
13.2 European Fardados' Domain of Great Spiritual Teachers Ranked by Smith's s	297