

Institutionalizing Gender

Madness, the Family, and Psychiatric Power in Nineteenth-Century France

Jessie Hewitt

CORNELL UNIVERSITY PRESS

ITHACA AND LONDON

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

INTRODUCTION 1

CHAPTER 1

Gender and the Founding “Fathers” of French Psychiatry 19

CHAPTER 2

Medical Controversy and Honor among (Mad)Men 43

CHAPTER 3

Domesticating Madness in the Family Asylum 67

CHAPTER 4

Scandalous Asylum Commitments and Patriarchal Power 92

CHAPTER 5

Rehabilitating a Profession under Siege 117

CHAPTER 6

Reforming the Asylum and Reimagining the Family 141

CONCLUSION

The “Mad” Woman in a Man’s World 166

Notes 177

Bibliography 207

Index 225