

ARCHIVES AND SPECIAL COLLECTIONS AS SITES OF CONTESTATION

Mary Kandiuk, Editor

LIBRARY JUICE PRESS
SACRAMENTO, CA

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Introduction – Mary Kandiuk | 1 |
| Acknowledgements – Mary Kandiuk | 5 |
| 1. Censorship or Stewardship? Strategies for Managing Biased Publications and Indigenous Traditional Knowledge in Special Collections Libraries – Lara K. Aase | 7 |
| 2. Prison Sentences: Recovering the Voices of Prisoners through Exhibition, Instruction, and Outreach – Kimberley Bell and Jillian Sparks | 37 |
| 3. Getting Out of the Archive: Building Positive Community Partnerships and Strong Social Justice Collections – Elizabeth Call and Miranda Mims | 63 |
| 4. Men, Masculinities, and the Archives: Introducing the Concept of Hegemonic Masculinity in Archival Discourse – François Dansereau | 81 |
| 5. The Gentleman's Ghost: Patriarchal Eurocentric Legacies in Special Collections Design – Jesse Ryan Erickson | 121 |
| 6. Sensitive Materials in the Special Collection: Some Considerations – Daniel German | 159 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 7. Healing through Inclusion: Preserving Community Perspectives on the Komagata Maru Incident – Melanie Hardbottle | 175 |
| 8. Ethical Cataloging and Racism in Special Collections – Elizabeth Hobart | 203 |
| 9. Invisible in Plain View: Libraries, Archives, Digitization, Memory, and the 1934 Chatham Coloured All-Stars – Heidi L.M. Jacobs | 223 |
| 10. Refocusing the Lens: Creating Social Justice Encounters for Students in the Archives – Peggy Keeran, Katherine Crowe, and Jennifer Bowers | 249 |
| 11. White Folks in the Black Archive: Questions of Power, Ethics, and Race around a Digital Editing Project – Clayton McCarl | 285 |
| 12. Breaking Barriers through Decolonial Community-Based Archival Practice – Krista McCracken and Skylee-Storm Hogan | 307 |
| 13. “Certain Moral Reflections”: Digital Exhibits and Critical Scholarship—The Case of the Kipling Scrapbooks Digital Exhibit – Jessica Ruzek, Roger Gillis, and Diana Doublet | 329 |
| 14. Controversy and Campus Legacies: A University Archives Caught in the Crossfire – Anne S.K. Turkos and Jason G. Speck | 359 |
| 15. Contesting Colonial Library Practices of Accessibility and Representation – Margarita Vargas-Betancourt, Jessica L. English, Melissa Jerome, and Angelibel Soto | 383 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 16. The Importance of Collecting, Accessing, and Contextualizing Japanese-American Historical Materials: A California State University Collaborative – Gregory L. Williams and Maureen Burns | 413 |
| 17. Signed, Sealed, Delivered (with Clarity, Context, and Patience): Ethical Considerations for Deeds of Gift and Transfer Agreements – Katrina Windon and Lori Birrell | 471 |
| About the Authors | 497 |
| Index | 505 |