

Richard Kern's Far West Sketches

A VISUAL HISTORY OF THE 1853 GUNNISON EXPEDITION

Robert Shlaer

BOXELDER BOOKS

Salt Lake City

FROM THE MOUTH OF TRAP CREEK TO THE SANTA FE CROSSING.

MAP NO. 1

From the mouth of Trap Creek to the Santa Fe crossing, the route of the 1853 Gunnison expedition is shown in red. The route is shown in yellow for the portion of the trip from the mouth of Trap Creek to the mouth of the Santa Fe River. The route is shown in blue for the portion of the trip from the mouth of the Santa Fe River to the Santa Fe crossing.

FROM THE MOUTH OF TRAP CREEK TO THE MOUTH OF THE SANTA FE RIVER.

MAP NO. 2

From the mouth of Trap Creek to the mouth of the Santa Fe River, the route of the 1853 Gunnison expedition is shown in red. The route is shown in yellow for the portion of the trip from the mouth of Trap Creek to the mouth of the Santa Fe River.

Contents

PUBLISHER'S NOTE IX

PRELUDE XI

Acknowledgments XXI

INTRODUCTION: THE "CENTRAL ROUTE TO THE PACIFIC" 1

THE GREAT PLAINS 47

SANGRE DE CRISTO MOUNTAINS 63

THE RIO GRANDE DEL NORTE 121

DOWN THE GRAND RIVER 179

IN THE COMPANY OF INDIANS 231

INTO THE DESERTS OF UTAH 261

RUSHING TO THE MASSACRE 297

SCENES UNSEEN 319

POSTLUDE: MOUNT SHASTA 331

SOURCE AND CREDITS 341

BIBLIOGRAPHY 343