

Dublin, 1910–1940

SHAPING THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Ruth McManus

FOUR COURTS PRESS

Contents

9

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS AND CURRENCY EQUIVALENCES

II

SERIES EDITOR'S INTRODUCTION

13

FOREWORD

The Corporation Housing Architect
(In memory, Herbert George Simms, 1898–1948)
Dermot Bolger

19

PREFACE

21

PLANNING THE CITY: THE BEGINNINGS

Introduction – The 1913 Housing Inquiry and its aftermath –
Funding problems for Corporation housing, 1900–22 – Town planning and Dublin – Geddes and Unwin as consultants – The Dublin Town Planning
Competition – Dublin's traumas, 1914–22 – Providing for a new régime: the Irish Free State – Civic Survey, 1925 – New municipal boundaries

91

BUILDING THE CITY: THE CORPORATION AS DEVELOPER

Introduction – The development continuum – How many dwellings? –
Dublin Corporation's housing schemes: the builders – building materials in Corporation schemes – Funding housing schemes – The Small Dwellings Acquisition Act (SDAA) – The location debate: city vs. suburbs – Housing type: flats vs. cottages – Slum clearance areas – Alternative solutions to the housing problem – Trends in the size of Corporation dwellings –
Sales vs. rental – Other public housing providers – Housing allocation and associated problems – Proposals following the Housing Inquiry of 1939–43 – Demographic imbalance in the new schemes – Conclusion

385

ALEXANDER STRAIN: PROFILE OF A BUILDER

Residences of Strain and family – Iona and Lindsay roads – Strain, the Corporation, and interests outside Drumcondra/Glasnevin – Cliftonville, Fairfield and Daneswell: developments from the late 1920s – Cliftonville and Hollybank roads, c.1926 – Cremore Estate – Mobhi Road (Dean Swift Avenue) – Associates of Alexander Strain – The Dublin and District Housebuilders' Association and town planning – Will of Alexander Strain – Conclusion

423

APPENDIX I: THE BACKGROUND TO MODERN TOWN PLANNING AND SUBURBAN DEVELOPMENT*Ruth McManus*

Searching for Utopia, Ebenezer Howard and the Garden City movement – Garden cities and garden suburbs – Town planning comes to Dublin

446

APPENDIX II: A BRIEF GUIDE TO MAPS OF DUBLIN IN THE FIRST HALF OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY*Joseph Brady*

451

APPENDIX III: SOME ASPECTS OF THE GEOGRAPHY OF THE CITY
CENTRE IN THE EARLY TWENTIETH CENTURY*Joseph Brady*

The metropolitan area – Growing pains – The transport network – Beauty, health and convenience – Suburbanization – The city centre

483

BIBLIOGRAPHY

495

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

499

INDEX

Illustrations

1	Poole Street at the end of the nineteenth century.	25
2a	Advertisement – Autocars of Chatham Street.	28
2b	Advertisement – Catering to every need.	29
3	Mount Brown (Ceannt Fort) development.	43
4	Location of first Corporation developments.	45
5	Abercrombie’s plan for a new traffic centre.	59
6	Abercrombie’s plan for the completion of the Custom House environs.	61
7	Abercrombie’s plan for the redevelopment of Mountjoy Square.	63
8	Example of housing and layout plan of village and factory at Port Sunlight, near Liverpool.	65
9	The ruins of the Custom House, 1921.	69
10	Upper Sackville (O’Connell) Street pre- and post-destruction.	71
11	Extracts from two maps of the Civic Survey.	84
12	Layout plan of St Joseph’s Place, off Dorset Street.	98
13	Two views of the Boyne Street development.	109
14	Layout plan for Donnelly’s Orchard, off Clonliffe Road.	110
15	Early layout plan for Fairbrothers’ Fields in the City Archive.	113
16	Advertisement for building materials.	114
17	Plan of Mooney’s Lane, Conquer Hill, Clontarf.	117
18	Location of Corporation schemes during the 1920s.	127
19	Two examples of housing in the Trinity ward scheme.	131
20	The development of the Keogh Barracks site.	138
21	The Oliver Bond development.	142
22	Cottages at O’Donoghue Street, looking towards Railway Avenue, Inchicore.	164
23	Model housing designs from the UK.	171
24	Layout plan of Letchworth Garden City, north of London.	173
25	Dublin Corporation’s flat developments at Pearse House, Hanover Street and Markievicz House, Townsend Street.	176
26	Dublin Corporation’s flat developments at Mercer House and Chancery Street.	177
27	General plan of Radburn, New Jersey, USA, showing the superblocks.	183
28	A cul-de-sac at Becontree, north London.	185
29	Outline design for Marino from Survey of the North Side of the City of Dublin, 1918.	186
30	The Marino site in 1911.	188
31	The completed Marino scheme.	189
32	Housing on Philipsburgh Avenue and Croydon Park.	195
33	Different housing styles and layouts in Marino.	197
34	Different housing styles and layouts in Marino.	198
35	Drumcondra in the early twentieth century.	199
36	Layout plan of the Drumcondra scheme.	201

37	Ferguson Road, Drumcondra soon after completion.	202
38	Hardiman Road, Drumcondra and Windele Road, a cul-de-sac in Drumcondra.	203
39	Advertisement for Cosgrave and Co.	206
40	Layout plan of the Donnycarney development.	208
41	Semi-detached houses at Donnycarney.	210
42	Chancery Place.	214
43	Flat development at Poplar Row, Ballybough.	215
44	Pearse House, Hanover Street flat development.	216
45	Location of Corporation cottage rental schemes, 1927–39.	219
46	Crumlin before development.	221
47	Crumlin in 1936.	222
48	Crumlin in 1943.	223
49	Crumlin – the developing landscape.	227
50	Layout plan of the Maryland development.	232
51	Layout plan of the Bulfin estate.	233
52	Activities of the St Barnabas Public Utility Society, East Wall.	237
53	Housing at St Barnabas Gardens.	238
54	Housing at Utility Gardens.	238
55	Linenhall Parade, North King Street.	247
56	The frontage of the Marino scheme on Griffith Avenue and Malahide Road.	250
57	‘Warden’ housing on Griffith Avenue and DCPUS housing on Malahide Road.	251
58	General map of the Drumcondra housing scheme.	254
59	Home Farm Road and The Rise, Glasnevin.	255
60	The activities of the the Irish Sailors’ and Soldiers’ Land Trust, Saorstát Civil Service Public Utility Society, Civil Service Housing Association, Dublin Commercial Public Utility Society and Louis P. Kinlen.	256
61	Houses built by Louis P. Kinlen on the west side of Bantry Road and by the Civil Service Housing Association on the east side of the same street.	258
62	Housing by J.J. Flanagan on Achill Road.	260
63	The Larkfield development, Kimmage.	265
64	Sundrive Road / Old County Road, Crumlin.	266
65	Croaghpatrick Road / Screen Road, Cabra.	267
66	Contrasting housing on Stella Avenue and Mobhi Road.	271
67	Gaeltacht Park in construction.	274
68	The development of Gaeltacht Park.	277
69	Post Office PUS houses and original Nua Gaedhealtacht houses.	279
70	Temple Hill / Temple Park, Blackrock.	281
71	Vernon Gardens / Grove, Clontarf.	283
72	Advertisement for all gas bungalows at Vernon Avenue, Clontarf.	284
73	Vernon Gardens, Clontarf – housing built by the Stewart Construction Company.	284
74	Castle Avenue and environs, Clontarf.	287
75	Kincora Road and Belgrove Road, Clontarf.	289
76	Housing on Kincora and Belgrove roads.	290
77	Kincora Road houses designed by J.V. Downes.	291
78	Mount Temple and environs, Clontarf.	294
79	Charlemont Street flats.	302
80	Drumcondra in 1907–8.	312

81	General map of the Iona district, Glasnevin.	314
82	Houses on Iona and Lindsay roads by Alexander Strain.	315
83	Housing on David Road, Glasnevin.	317
84	Millmount and Millbourne avenues, Drumcondra.	319
85	Housing on Millmount Avenue, Drumcondra.	320
86	St Alphonsus Road and environs, Drumcondra.	325
87	Advertisement for Nofrango.	333
88	'The new way'. Advertisement for electricity.	338
89	'The traditional way'. Advertisement for gas.	339
90	Hollybank Road, Drumcondra.	346
91	The impressive façade of the Player's factory on Botanic Road.	349
92	Layout of Clare, Arran and Wellpark roads, Drumcondra.	350
93	Church of St Columba, Iona Road.	354
94	Housing at David Park, Glasnevin.	363
95	Environs of Clonturk Park, Drumcondra.	365
96	Layout of Clonturk Park and Ormond Road.	368
97	Dublin Housebuilders' Association prior to their 'smoking dinner' in 1932.	372
98	8000 New Homesteads in Six Years.	374
99	Development underway at Furry Park, Clontarf.	376
100	Layout of part of Mount Merrion.	380
101	The street with no name. Lying between Iona and Lindsay roads.	386
102	Residences of Alexander Strain.	388
103	The Iona district, Glasnevin.	390
104	Housing on Iona Park.	391
105	Detail on housing in Iona.	392
106	Development in Inchicore between 1907 and 1943.	396
107	Cliftonville and Marguerite roads, Glasnevin.	400
108	Housing in Cliftonville Road and Marguerite Road.	402
109	Advertisement for Players cigarettes.	403
110	Imperial Tobacco Co. houses on Botanic Avenue.	404
111	Strain houses and Wearing houses on Hollybank Road.	405
112	Layout plan of Cremore estate, Glasnevin and Alexander Strain's house at 23 Cremore Park.	408
113	Home of Samuel Phillips, Ormond Road.	410
114	Advertisement for Thomas J. Boyd of Iona Crescent (Hollybank Road).	412
115	Linzell's 'Wendon', off Mobhi Road, Glasnevin.	414
116	Advertisement for Linzell featuring 'Wendon' and for Concrete Products of Ireland.	415
117	House by Linzell on Hampstead Avenue.	416
118	The crowd illuminated.	425
119	Layout plan of Bournville, Birmingham.	432
120	The three magnets.	434
121	An early plan for Welwyn Garden City, London by Louis de Soissons (c.1921).	438
122	Howard's home at Welwyn Garden City, London (1920-9).	440
123	Housing at Hampstead Garden Suburb, London.	441
124	Housing designs for Hampstead Garden Suburb.	442
125	O'Connell Street in the early 1930s.	454
126	The era of the tram. A view from Nelson's Pillar.	455
127	Advertisement for the David Allen Company.	459

128	1920s advertisement for Capstan Navy Cut cigarettes.	461
129	Redevelopment was a feature of the city even in the nineteenth century.	462
130	Upper O'Connell Street reconstructed.	463
131	Switzers of Grafton Street.	465
132	Advertisement for Slyne.	466
133	E. and W. Seale Ltd. of Grafton Street.	467
134	Advertisement for Forrest's Autumn Novelties.	468
135	Becker Bros Tea – still an important feature of the city in the 1920s.	471
136	Clerys department store – the key anchor for O'Connell Street.	473
137	Stephen's Green Turkish Baths.	474
138	The restored façade of Hopkins and Hopkins, O'Connell Street.	475
139	Todd Burns at the corner of Mary and Jervis streets.	477
140	Leon of Henry and Grafton streets.	478
141	Retail activity beyond the core – Kenny and Owens.	480
142	Advertisement for The O'Hanrahans.	481

Tables

1	Tenement conditions in 1913.	32
2	Diet of a sample of the poor in Dublin in the early years of the twentieth century.	34
3	Dwellings completed by Dublin Corporation and rentals.	36
4	Prices in Dublin compared to average Irish prices, 1922.	78
5	Increase in material costs in 1924 over 1914.	79
6	Size of dwellings occupied by private families in Dublin, 1926.	87
7	Housing density of private families in Dublin, 1926.	87
8	Number of families living in one-roomed tenements in Dublin, 1927.	88
9	Dwellings erected and acquired by Dublin Corporation to 31 March 1939.	99
10	Dwellings completed by Dublin Corporation (including Pembroke and Rathmines Districts).	100
11	Building costs in London and Dublin in 1924 compared.	115
12	Size of Corporation dwellings, 1926–39, and recommendations of the 1939–43 Housing Inquiry.	144
13	Rental housing (cottages) erected by Dublin Corporation, 1914–39.	148
14	Cost of different house types on Kimmage Road.	152
15	Private families in Dublin City, 1926 and 1936.	158
16	Dublin Corporation housing schemes pre-1914.	165
17	Dublin Corporation schemes completed, 1914–21.	165
18	Tenant purchase schemes, 1914–39.	167
19	Proposed architects for Corporation schemes, December 1918.	169
20	Cost of development at Marino.	187
21	Upper Drumcondra area sale scheme.	205
22	Average retail price for principal food items in Irish towns in mid-July 1928.	206
23	Scheme of sale of 421 4-room houses, Donnycarney.	209
24	Dublin Corporation flat schemes, post-1914 to 1939.	213
25	Cottage rental schemes, 1927–39.	218
26	Housing in Dublin city by private builders and public utility societies, 1933–8.	297
27	Housing and population in Drumcondra Township, 1881–1911.	313
28	House plans issued in connection with the 1924 Housing (Building Facilities) Act	362