

JOB
FROM LAMENT TO PENITENCE

Alexander W. Breitkopf

SHEFFIELD PHOENIX PRESS
2020

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments and Dedication	vii
Abbreviations	ix
1. Form in the Context of Eco-Anthropology	1
2. Frameworks and Steps of Analysis	14
3. Markers, Prologue and Job's Opening Lament	28
4. The Wisdom Dialogue (The Friends)	53
5. The Wisdom Dialogue (Job)	81
6. The Wisdom Poem, Final Defense and Elihu	109
7. The Divine Speeches and the Prose Epilogue	124
8. The End of the Matter: Summary and Concluding Thoughts	152
Appendix 1: Use of Eco-Anthropological Metaphor in the Wisdom Dialogue	161
Appendix 2: Connection of the Creation Imagery/Language between the Divine and the Human Speeches	163
Bibliography	164
Index of References	174
Index of Authors	182

List of Illustrations

Figure 1
Detail of wounded lion I. Relief, Nineveh, North Palace of Ashurbanipal (c. seventh century)	104
Figure 2
Detail of wounded lion II. Relief, Nineveh, North Palace of Ashurbanipal (c. seventh century)	104