

SEBASTIANO DEL PIOMBO AND THE SACRED IMAGE

Mediating the Divine
in the Age of Reform

Marsha Libina

BREPOLS

Contents

LIST OF FIGURES	5
INTRODUCTION. SEBASTIANO DEL PIOMBO AND MICHELANGELO:
A COLLABORATION IN ART AND REFORM	13
The crisis of the image and religious reform before Trent.....	20
Sebastiano as a reform artist	25
Reinventing Michelangelo and the sacred image.....	30
Imitation, collaboration, and dual authorship	36
The scope of the study	46
1 PICTURING TIME AND ETERNITY.....	59
Motion, stillness, and separation	66
The senses, time, and eternity	74
The mutability of nature.....	77
Temporality in the devotional image	81
2 MEDIATION AND SCRIPTURE'S INTERPRETERS.....	93
Prophetic preaching and scriptural exegesis.....	97
Pictorial layering and framing.....	101
The book as a path to enlightenment	109
Mimesis and metaphor in picturing the divine	118
The Old Testament as prophetic text.....	121
3 IMITATIO CHRISTI AND THE INTERNAL IMAGE	135
Imitatio Christi and personal salvation	141
Faith alone and Christ's portrait	152
Between event and vision in the devotional close-up	162
Colorito , shadow, and painting on slate.....	174
4 THE HOLY FACE AND THE FACE OF ART	183
Devotion to relics.....	185
Transforming Michelangelo and the Man of Sorrows	186
Substitutes for the body of Christ.....	197

CONTENTS

Debate on the cult of relics.....	200
The Holy Face and divine presence.....	206
A hierarchy of holy objects.....	208
The cult of art and the cult object.....	211
CONCLUSION. MEDIATED TRUTHS AFTER THE COUNCIL OF TRENT.....	221
BIBLIOGRAPHY	241
INDEX	261