

Luzerner Beiträge zur Rechtswissenschaft (LBR)

Herausgegeben von Jörg Schmid im Auftrag der
Rechtswissenschaftlichen Fakultät der Universität Luzern

Band 171

Romana Weinöhrl-Brüggemann

The Non-Participation of Parties and Default Proceedings in Swiss International Commercial Arbitration

with a Comparative Perspective

Schulthess § 2023

Table of contents (extended version)

Table of contents (short version).....	VII
Table of contents (extended version)	IX
List of abbreviations	XI
Bibliography	XV
Table of jurisprudence.....	LI
I Germany.....	LI
II England	LI
III France.....	LI
IV Switzerland.....	LII
1 Cantonal decisions.....	LII
2 Unpublished decisions of the Federal Supreme Court.....	LIII
3 Published decisions of the Federal Supreme Court.....	LVI
A Introduction.....	1
I Introductory remarks.....	1
1 Motivation for this study.....	1
2 Default in arbitration proceedings versus default in court proceedings.....	1
II Content of the study.....	2
1 Objective	2
2 Scope	2
2.1 International commercial arbitrations seated in Switzerland	2
2.2 Comparative perspective	2
2.3 Indirect ways of non-participation.....	3
2.4 Partial and total non-participation	3
2.5 Not part of this study: default of institutions, non-party participants, arbitrators.....	3
3 Structure and method	3
III Definition of key terms	4
1 Default.....	4
1.1 No formal definition in Swiss lex arbitri.....	4
1.2 Commonly accepted definition.....	4
1.3 Partial and total default.....	4
2 Default proceedings.....	5

3	Default award	5
3.1	In the wider sense	5
3.2	In the narrower sense/judgment by default	5
3.3	As used in this study.....	5
B	Background	7
I	Introduction.....	7
II	Reasons for default	7
1	On claimant's side	7
2	On respondent's side	8
III	Benefits and disadvantages of default for the participating party.....	8
IV	Consequences of non-participation: balance of legitimate interests.....	9
V	A party's right to participate	10
1	Comparative perspective.....	10
2	Swiss lex arbitri	11
2.1	Statutory and constitutional basis.....	11
2.2	Right to be heard in adversarial proceedings	12
2.2.1	Right to argue one's case, to make legal arguments and to submit evidence.....	12
2.2.2	Access to the file.....	14
2.2.3	Hearings.....	14
2.2.4	Representation.....	15
2.2.5	Taking of evidence	15
2.2.6	Reasoned decision	16
2.3	Right to equal treatment	17
2.4	Default and waiver	17
2.5	In comparison to Swiss domestic arbitration.....	17
3	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	18
3.1	Right to be heard under the Federal Constitution and the CPC	19
3.1.1	Right to express one's views	19
3.1.2	Hearings.....	21
3.1.3	Taking of evidence	21
3.1.4	Access to the file.....	22
3.1.5	Being informed about and reasoning of the decision	22
3.1.6	Representation.....	22

3.1.7	Waiver.....	23
3.2	Right to be heard in the ECHR.....	23
3.3	Default and waiver	25
VI	A party's duty or obligation to participate	25
1	Comparative perspective	25
1.1	Duty to participate in the arbitration	25
1.2	Duty to make payment of the advance on costs	27
2	Swiss lex arbitri.....	27
2.1	Duty to participate in the arbitration	27
2.1.1	Contractual basis	27
2.1.2	Duty to act in good faith.....	29
2.2	Duty to make payment of the advance on costs	31
VII	Summary.....	31
C	Common procedural questions arising in default proceedings	33
I	Introduction.....	33
II	Proper notification.....	33
1	Introductory remarks.....	33
1.1	Proper notification as a prerequisite for default	33
1.2	Improper notification as a ground for challenge or refusal of recognition and enforcement.....	33
2	Standard of proper notice in default proceedings.....	34
2.1	Comparative perspective	34
2.1.1	Sources to determine the applicable standard	34
2.1.2	Content	35
2.1.3	Form	36
2.1.4	Address.....	36
2.1.5	Confirmation of receipt and deemed notice.....	37
2.1.6	Sufficient time period	39
2.1.7	Language of the notice	40
2.1.8	Burden of proof of improper notice.....	41
2.2	Swiss lex arbitri.....	41
2.2.1	Sources to determine the applicable standard	41
2.2.2	Content	42
2.2.3	Form	43

	2.2.4	Address, confirmation of receipt and deemed notice	43
	2.2.5	Sufficient time period	44
	2.2.6	Language of the notice	45
	2.2.7	Burden of proof of improper notice.....	45
	2.3	In the various institutional rules	46
	3	Summary and assessment.....	46
III		Ex parte communications with the active party	47
IV		The arbitral tribunal's duties to act on its own accord	47
	1	Duty to determine its own jurisdiction	48
	1.1	Comparative perspective	48
	1.2	Swiss lex arbitri	49
	1.2.1	Statutory basis	49
	1.2.2	Leading authorities and jurisprudence.....	49
	1.3	In the various institutional rules	52
	2	Duty to determine arbitrability of the dispute	53
	2.1	Comparative perspective	53
	2.2	Swiss lex arbitri	53
	2.2.1	Statutory basis	53
	2.2.2	Leading authorities	53
	2.2.3	Jurisprudence	54
	3	Duty to determine the arbitral procedure	55
	3.1	Comparative perspective	55
	3.2	Swiss lex arbitri	56
	3.3	In the various institutional rules	56
	4	Duty to investigate	57
	4.1	Comparative perspective	57
	4.2	Swiss lex arbitri	58
	4.2.1	Statutory basis	58
	4.2.2	Leading authorities and jurisprudence.....	59
	4.2.2.1	Duty of the tribunal to investigate the facts in regular proceedings... 59
	4.2.2.2	Duty of the tribunal to investigate the facts in default proceedings... 60
	4.3	In the various institutional rules	61
	4.4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings	62
	5	Duty to apply the law	63
	5.1	Comparative perspective	63

5.2	Swiss lex arbitri	65
5.2.1	Statutory basis	65
5.2.2	Leading authorities and jurisprudence.....	65
5.2.2.1	Principle.....	65
5.2.2.2	Exceptions	67
a)	Parties' agreement on a limited scope for the arbitrators' mandate....	67
b)	Parties to establish foreign (non-Swiss) applicable law	68
c)	Inability to foresee a provision.....	68
5.2.3	Consequences for default proceedings.....	69
5.3	In the various institutional rules	69
6	Summary	70
V	Powers of and sanctions by the arbitral tribunal	71
1	Comparative perspective.....	71
1.1	Powers and sanctions agreed by the parties	71
1.2	Drawing procedural consequences.....	72
1.3	Consideration in the decision on costs	72
1.4	Adverse inferences	72
1.5	Monetary penalties	73
1.6	Support of state court	74
1.7	Damages	74
1.8	Termination of the arbitration agreement.....	75
2	Swiss lex arbitri.....	76
2.1	In general	76
2.2	Powers and sanctions agreed by the parties	76
2.3	Drawing procedural consequences.....	76
2.4	Consideration in the decision on costs	77
2.5	Adverse inferences	77
2.6	Monetary penalties	78
2.7	Criminal law-based sanctions.....	79
2.8	Support of state court	79
2.9	Damages	80
2.10	Termination of the arbitration agreement and waiver of the arbitration plea.....	81
2.10.1	Offer to terminate	82
2.10.2	Exceptional termination of a continuing obligation for good cause... 82

2.10.3	Termination due to delayed performance.....	83
2.10.4	Waiver of the right to arbitrate for a particular dispute.....	83
2.10.5	Summary.....	84
3	In the various institutional rules.....	84
4	Summary.....	85
VI	Waiver of objections by non-participation.....	86
1	Comparative view.....	86
2	Swiss lex arbitri	88
3	In the various institutional rules.....	90
4	Summary.....	92
VII	Reappearing in the proceedings.....	92
D	Total default of a party.....	95
I	Introduction.....	95
II	Procedural consequences.....	95
1	Elements common to both claimant's and respondent's default.....	95
1.1	Party autonomy.....	95
1.1.1	Comparative perspective.....	95
1.1.2	Swiss lex arbitri	95
1.2	Sufficient cause for default.....	96
1.2.1	Comparative perspective.....	96
1.2.2	Swiss lex arbitri	97
1.3	Advance warning.....	97
1.3.1	Comparative perspective.....	97
1.3.2	Swiss lex arbitri	98
2	Default of the claimant	99
2.1	Comparative perspective.....	99
2.1.1	Provisions governing the general default of the claimant.....	100
2.1.2	Parallels to the withdrawal of claims.....	102
2.2	Swiss lex arbitri	103
2.2.1	Parallels to the withdrawal of claims.....	103
2.2.2	Default before the burden or right to proceed: termination.....	105
2.2.3	Default after the burden or right to proceed: generally continuation.....	106
2.3	In the various institutional rules.....	106

	2.3.1	Provisions governing the general default of the claimant	106
	2.3.2	Parallels to the withdrawal of claims.....	108
3		Default of the respondent	110
	3.1	Comparative perspective	110
	3.2	Swiss lex arbitri	112
	3.3	In the various institutional rules	113
III		Substantive consequences.....	113
	1	Comparative perspective.....	113
	1.1	No admission of claims	113
	1.2	Burden and standard of proof.....	116
	2	Swiss lex arbitri	116
	2.1	No admission of claims	116
	2.2	Burden and standard of proof.....	117
	3	In the various institutional rules	118
IV		Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings	119
	1	Continuation with preclusive effect	119
	2	Unchallenged allegations	119
	3	Restoring a deadline	120
	4	The differences to Swiss-seated arbitrations.....	121
V		Summary	122
E		Non-participation of parties in various procedural steps	125
I		Introduction.....	125
II		Claimant's failure to submit its request for arbitration	125
	1	Comparative view	125
	1.1	Request for arbitration and the commencement of proceedings	125
	1.2	Consequences attached to the request	127
	2	Swiss lex arbitri	127
	2.1	Request for arbitration and the commencement of proceedings	127
	2.2	Consequences attached to the request	128
	3	In the various institutional rules.....	130
	4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	131
	5	Summary and assessment.....	132
III		Claimant's failure to pay the registration/filing fee.....	132
	1	Comparative view and Swiss lex arbitri	132

2	In the various institutional rules	132
3	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	135
4	Summary and assessment.....	136
IV	Respondent's failure to submit an answer to the request	136
1	Comparative view and Swiss lex arbitri	136
1.1	Effect in general	136
1.2	Effect on jurisdiction	137
1.3	Effect on counterclaims.....	139
1.4	Effect on the nomination of arbitrators	140
2	In the various institutional rules	140
2.1	Effect in general	140
2.2	Effect on jurisdiction	141
2.3	Effect on counterclaims.....	143
2.4	Effect on the nomination of arbitrators	143
2.5	Other issues	144
3	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	144
4	Summary and assessment.....	144
V	The parties' failure to pay the advance on costs.....	145
1	Comparative view	145
1.1	Advance on costs.....	145
1.1.1	No provisions in arbitration laws	145
1.1.2	Tribunal's right to request an advance on costs.....	145
1.1.3	Substantive obligation to contribute equally	146
1.2	Failure by both parties to make payment	147
1.3	Failure by one party to make payment	148
1.3.1	Requesting separate advances	148
1.3.2	Forcing the recalcitrant party to make payment	148
1.3.2.1	Partial award.....	149
1.3.2.2	Interim measure.....	150
1.3.2.3	Order by a state court	150
1.3.3	Substitution and reimbursement.....	151
1.3.3.1	Contractual damages claim.....	152
1.3.3.2	Subrogation of rights	153
1.3.4	Termination of the arbitration agreement and waiver of arbitration plea.....	153

2	Swiss lex arbitri	155
2.1	Advance on costs	155
2.1.1	No provision in Swiss international lex arbitri	155
2.1.2	Tribunal's right to request an advance on costs	156
2.1.3	Substantive obligation to contribute equally	157
2.1.3.1	In favour of a substantive obligation	157
2.1.3.2	Against a substantive obligation	158
2.1.3.3	Funding of an ordinary partnership	158
2.1.3.4	View taken in this study	159
2.2	Failure by both parties to make payment	161
2.3	Failure by one party to make payment	164
2.3.1	Forcing the recalcitrant party to make payment	164
2.3.1.1	Partial award	164
2.3.1.2	Interim measure	165
2.3.1.3	Order by a state court	166
2.3.2	Substitution and reimbursement	166
2.3.2.1	Partial award	166
a)	Legal basis, form, enforceability	166
b)	Discretion of arbitral tribunal in rendering a partial award	168
c)	Performance or contractual damages claim	168
2.3.2.2	Interim measure	169
2.3.3	Termination of the arbitration agreement and waiver of arbitration plea	170
2.3.3.1	By agreement or under the lex arbitri	170
2.3.3.2	Analogous right to Art. 378(2) CPC to waive arbitration by the active party	170
2.3.3.3	Alternatively: waiver of the arbitration plea due to abuse of rights	171
2.3.3.4	Offer to terminate the arbitration agreement by the defaulting party	172
2.3.3.5	Termination of a continuing obligation for good cause	172
2.3.3.6	Termination due to delayed performance	173
2.3.3.7	In a nutshell	174
3	In the various institutional rules	174
3.1	Duty of the parties to make payment	174
3.2	Failure by both parties to make payment	175

3.2.1	Suspension and termination.....	175
3.2.2	Body to order termination	176
3.2.3	Decision on costs.....	177
3.2.4	Set-off defences and counterclaims.....	178
3.3	Failure by one party to make payment	179
3.3.1	Substitution.....	179
3.3.2	Remedies against the recalcitrant party.....	179
3.3.3	Termination of the arbitration agreement and waiver of arbitration plea.....	183
4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	184
5	Summary and assessment.....	185
VI	A party's failure to pay security for costs.....	187
1	Comparative view	187
2	Swiss lex arbitri	189
2.1	Legal basis and the requesting party	189
2.2	Form and legal basis of the measure	190
2.3	Effect of non-payment.....	192
3	Under the different institutional rules	194
4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	197
5	Summary and assessment.....	198
VII	The parties' or a party's failure to appoint an arbitrator.....	198
1	Comparative view	198
1.1	Party autonomy.....	198
1.2	Turning to state courts for help.....	199
1.3	Examples in arbitration law.....	200
2	Swiss lex arbitri	202
2.1	Party autonomy.....	202
2.1.1	Agreement on institutional rules or on a designated appointing authority.....	202
2.1.2	Agreement on the designation of a state court judge as the appointing authority (Art. 179(3) PILA).....	204
2.2	Appointment by a state court (Art. 179(2) PILA).....	205
2.2.1	Power of the state court.....	205
2.2.2	Type of proceedings	206
2.2.3	Competent court	206

2.2.4	Applicable law.....	206
2.2.5	Summary examination of arbitration agreement.....	207
2.2.6	Court decisions appointing arbitrators.....	208
2.2.7	Arbitration agreement not binding due to a denial of justice.....	209
2.3	Multiparty arbitration.....	210
3	Under the different institutional rules.....	212
4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	214
5	Summary and assessment.....	214
VIII	A party's failure to take part in establishing terms of reference.....	216
1	Introductory remarks.....	216
1.1	Basis for terms of reference.....	216
1.2	Effect of signing the terms of reference.....	216
2	Where one party refuses to sign.....	217
2.1	ICC Court approval.....	217
2.2	Content of the terms of reference.....	217
2.3	Effect on the signatory and non-signatory party.....	218
3	Where all parties refuse to sign.....	220
4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	220
5	Summary and assessment.....	220
IX	A party's failure to make written submissions.....	221
1	Claimant's failure to submit the statement of claim.....	221
1.1	Comparative view.....	221
1.2	Swiss lex arbitri.....	224
1.3	In the various institutional rules.....	224
1.4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	228
1.5	Summary and assessment.....	229
2	Claimant's failure to make further written submissions.....	229
2.1	Comparative view.....	229
2.2	Swiss lex arbitri.....	230
2.3	In the various institutional rules.....	230
2.4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	231
2.5	Summary and assessment.....	232
3	Respondent's failure to submit the statement of defence or further written submissions.....	232
3.1	Comparative view.....	232

3.1.1	Continuation of the proceedings.....	232
3.1.2	Duty to give the respondent an opportunity to justify its default.....	233
3.1.3	Duty to grant an extension of the deadline.....	233
3.1.4	Skipping further procedural steps.....	234
3.1.4.1	Second round of submissions.....	234
3.1.4.2	Hearing.....	235
3.1.5	Substantive effects.....	236
3.1.6	Preclusive effect.....	237
3.1.7	Cost allocation.....	238
3.2	Swiss lex arbitri	238
3.2.1	Continuation of the proceedings.....	238
3.2.2	Duty to give the respondent an opportunity to justify its default.....	239
3.2.3	Duty to grant an extension of the deadline.....	239
3.2.4	Skipping further procedural steps.....	240
3.2.4.1	Second round of submissions.....	240
3.2.4.2	Hearing.....	240
3.2.5	Substantive effects.....	241
3.2.5.1	No admission of factual allegations made by claimant.....	241
3.2.5.2	Burden of proof.....	242
3.2.5.3	Duty of the tribunal to ask questions.....	242
3.2.5.4	Right of the tribunal to call for further evidence.....	242
3.2.6	Preclusive effect.....	243
3.3	In the various institutional rules.....	244
3.4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	247
3.5	Summary and assessment.....	248
X	A party's failure to produce evidence.....	249
1	Comparative view.....	249
1.1	Introductory remarks: substantive contractual or statutory rights versus procedural rights to document production.....	249
1.2	Power of the arbitral tribunal to order the production of evidence.....	250
1.3	Continuation of the proceedings despite a party's non-compliance.....	251
1.4	Remedies in case of non-compliance.....	252
1.4.1	Adverse inferences.....	252

1.4.2	Monetary sanctions.....	254
1.4.3	Cost allocation.....	255
1.4.4	Sanctions against party representatives.....	256
1.5	State court assistance in implementing document production orders.....	256
1.6	Enforceability of the document production order.....	257
2	Swiss lex arbitri.....	258
2.1	Power of the arbitral tribunal to order the production of documents.....	258
2.2	Remedies in case of non-compliance.....	258
2.2.1	Continuation of the proceedings, adverse inferences, cost allocation.....	258
2.2.2	Monetary sanctions, sanctions against party representatives.....	259
2.3	State court assistance in implementing document production orders.....	260
2.4	Enforceability of the document production order.....	261
3	In the various institutional rules.....	262
4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	264
5	Summary.....	265
XI	A party's failure to attend a hearing.....	265
1	Comparative view.....	265
1.1	Continuation of the hearing.....	265
1.2	Defaulting party's right to be heard.....	269
1.3	Adverse inferences.....	271
1.4	Hearings in default proceedings.....	271
2	Swiss lex arbitri.....	273
2.1	Waiting period to appear at a hearing.....	273
2.2	Continuation of the hearing.....	273
2.3	Defaulting party's right to be heard.....	274
2.4	Amendment of prayers for relief during the hearing.....	275
2.5	Adverse inferences.....	276
2.6	Hearings in default proceedings.....	277
3	In the various institutional rules.....	278
3.1	Continuation of the hearing.....	278
3.2	Hearings in default proceedings.....	282
4	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	283

4.1	General rule	283
4.2	Amendment of prayers for relief during the hearing.....	285
5	Summary and assessment.....	285
F	Recourse against awards in default proceedings	287
I	Introduction.....	287
II	Nullity of awards and non-awards.....	287
1	In state court litigation.....	288
2	In arbitration.....	289
2.1	Finality of an award.....	289
2.2	Non-awards	290
2.3	Null and void awards.....	290
2.4	Where a party was not informed of all or a part of the proceedings.....	292
III	Challenge of awards.....	293
1	Comparative view	293
1.1	Typical grounds for challenge in default proceedings.....	293
1.2	Waiver of grounds for challenge	294
1.3	Jurisdiction	295
2	Swiss lex arbitri	296
2.1	Procedural issues	296
2.1.1	Legal entitlement of the defaulting party to challenge the award	296
2.1.2	Waiver of grounds for challenge	297
2.1.3	Restriction of new evidence	299
2.2	Grounds for challenge	300
2.2.1	Improper appointment of sole arbitrator or constitution of tribunal, Art. 190(2)(a) PILA.....	300
2.2.1.1	Appointment	300
2.2.1.2	Impartiality and independence	301
a)	Relationship to the instrument of challenging arbitrators in the proceedings, Art. 180 PILA.....	301
b)	Scope of appeal under Art. 190(2)(a) PILA.....	302
c)	In default proceedings	303
2.2.2	Incorrect findings of the tribunal on jurisdiction, Art. 190(2)(b) PILA	303
2.2.2.1	Duty to object to jurisdiction before entering on the merits.....	303

2.2.2.2	Object of challenge: first award.....	304
2.2.3	Ultra petita, infra petita, Art. 190(2)(c) PILA.....	304
2.2.4	Violation of the principle of equal treatment, right to be heard, Art. 190(2)(d) PILA.....	305
2.2.4.1	Legal basis.....	305
2.2.4.2	Right to equal treatment in the context of default proceedings.....	305
2.2.4.3	Right to be heard in adversarial proceedings in the context of default proceedings.....	307
2.2.5	Violation of public policy, Art. 190(2)(e) PILA.....	313
2.2.5.1	Substantive public policy.....	314
2.2.5.2	Procedural public policy.....	314
2.3	Effect of a successful challenge.....	316
IV	Revision of award in default proceedings.....	316
1	Comparative perspective.....	316
2	Swiss lex arbitri.....	317
2.1	Time limits and grounds for revision.....	318
2.2	Finding essential evidence after the award.....	318
3	Institutional rules.....	320
V	Restoration of deadlines.....	320
1	Comparative perspective.....	320
2	Swiss lex arbitri.....	321
3	Comparison with Swiss cantonal civil court proceedings.....	321
VI	Summary.....	322
G	Recognition and enforcement of a foreign default award.....	325
I	Introduction.....	325
II	Comparative view.....	325
III	Swiss lex arbitri.....	327
1	General remarks.....	327
2	Waiver of grounds to prevent recognition and enforcement.....	327
2.1	Duty to object.....	327
2.2	Timing of the objection.....	329
2.3	Modalities of the objection.....	330
3	Jurisdictional issues in default proceedings.....	330
4	Grounds to deny recognition.....	331

4.1	Incapacity of the parties or invalidity of the arbitration agreement, Art. V(1)(a) NYC	331
4.2	Improper notice or violation of the right to be heard, Art. V(1)(b) NYC.....	331
4.2.1	Content	331
4.2.2	Substantive provision versus law of the executing state	331
4.2.3	Proper notice.....	332
4.2.4	Right to be heard	333
4.2.5	Burden of proof	335
4.3	Dispute not covered by or exceeds scope of arbitration agreement, Art. V(1)(c) NYC	335
4.4	Improper composition of arbitral authority or improper arbitral procedure, Art. V(1)(d) NYC	336
4.5	Award not yet binding, or set aside or suspended, Art. V(1)(e) NYC....	336
4.6	Inarbitrability, Art. V(2)(a) NYC.....	337
4.7	Violation of public policy, Art. V(2)(b) NYC	337
IV	Summary and assessment	340
H	Recommendations.....	343
I	For the participating parties in the proceedings	343
II	For the arbitral tribunal	343
I	Summary of the key findings	347
I	Key terms	347
II	Background	347
III	Common procedural questions in default proceedings.....	348
IV	Total default of a party	350
V	Partial non-participation of a party.....	350
VI	Recourse against awards in default proceedings.....	353
VII	Recognition and enforcement of a foreign award	355
VIII	Conclusion	355
J	Index.....	357