

Contents

1	I – Introduction
1	“It Was a Lovely Trip ”
5	II – Reichenbach and Beyond
5	The Missing Mountain Guide
9	The many routes from the Reichenbach Falls
16	A Study in Probabilities and Realities
19	The Florentine Sherlock
24	Towards a Forbidden Land of the Holy Books
32	III – Stories for which the world is now prepared
31	The Mystery of Adelheid Halm
35	An engine comparison
41	The Baden Dilemma?
45	A Fixed Point
55	IV – “We are coming to Switzerland (...) There is beautiful atmosphere in these heights.”
55	Adventures & Amusements in Alpine Heights
69	“It is, indeed, a fearful place” : On Conan Doyle and Switzerland
79	“The Best or the Worst Thing I Ever Wrote” : A. Conan Doyle and The Stark Munro Letters
86	The Brigadier in Switzerland: Travels with Arthur and Napoleon
95	The Final Return
103	V – Afterword
103	“Well, it was a pleasant talk”
106	VI – Biographies of authors