Borbála Gulyás

The Art of the Calligrapher George Bocskay

ELKH | Eötvös Loránd Research Network

Research Centre for the Humanities
Institute of Art History

Budapest
2023

Contents

Acknowledgements 9

Introduction 13

Relevant Research 17

I. George Bocskay's Family History
1. Origins 29
2. Bocskay and His Family's Letters Patent (1549) 31
3. Bocskay's Wife and Children 36
4. Bocskay's Last Will and Testament and the Site of his Burial 37

II. George Bocskay's Administrative Career
1. The Start of His Professional Life 47
2. Thirty Years at the Hungarian Court Chancellery:
Scribe, Hungarian Royal Court Secretary, and Royal Councilor 52
3. Bocskay's Patrons and His Connections to the Batthyány and Nádasdy Families 57

III. The Art of George Bocskay
1. The Recognition of Calligraphy as a Distinct Art Form in the 16th Century 65
2. The Calligrapher
2.1 "In perpetuam memoriam Artis scribendi"—
Bocskay on His Own Work 78
2.2 "Aulicus et scriba noster"—
The Calligrapher to the Ruler at the Viennese Court 83
2.3 Imitation and Invention in Bocskay's Calligraphic Work 90
3. Writing Model Books
3.1 Manuscripts and Kunstkammern 108
3.2 The Small-Format Writing Model Books 120
Manuscript 1 (1561–1562), Prepared for Ferdinand I 120
Manuscript 3 (1571–1573), Prepared for Maximilian II 128

Joris Hoefnagel's Miniatures (1591–1596) and
Rudolf II's Kunstkammer in Prague 137
3.3 Manuscript 2—the Large-Format Writing Model Book
Prepared for Ferdinand I (ca. 1562) 153
The Manuscript in the Ambras Kunstkammer
of Archduke Ferdinand II of Tyrol 157
4. Charters
4.1 Decorated Charters for Rulers 161
The Marriage-Ratification Charters (1565) 161
4.2 Letters Patent for Hungarian Nobles (1550–1575) 167
Combinations of Gothic and Humanist Letter Types—the Libelli
Granted to Miklós Oláh and Márk Horváth-Stanchich (1558–1560) ... 169
Gothic Letter Types Accompanied by Arabesques—the Libelli
Granted to János Pethő de Gerse III and János Liszthy (1572–1573) .. 175
Various German Blackletters—the Neudörffer Group 183
Gothic and Antiqua Letter Types—the Amphiareo Group 188
Combinations of Gothic and Antiqua Scripts 188
Variations on Antiqua Scripts 192
5. Inscriptions on Sepulchral Monuments
5.1 The Novel Calligraphic Technique of Acid Etching 194
5.2 The Inscriptions on the Sepulchral Monument to Maximilian I in Innsbruck (1562–1568) 198
Antiquarianism and All'antica Representation at the Viennese Court of Ferdinand I 198
The Final Conception for the Sepulchral Monument to Maximilian I 205
Bocskay's Antiquarian Manuscript 2, Dedicated to Ferdinand I,
and the Commissioning of the Inscriptions 216
The Execution of the Tablets 218
The Inscriptions 226
5.3 Inscriptions on the Nádasdy–Kanizsay Sepulchral Monument in Léka (Lockenhaus) (1565) 230
The Nádasdy Crypt in the Castle of Léka 230
The 17th-Century Nádasdy Crypt and Its Relocation
from the Castle to the Augustinian Church of Léka 236
The Sepulchral Monument and Its Inscriptions 238
5.4 The Roman Square Capitals of the Two Sepulchral Monuments 247

Conclusion 253

Notes 256

List of Illustrations 299

Abbreviations
a) Manuscripts 316
b) Institutions 316
c) Archival Sources and Regestae 317

Manuscripts and Sources
a) Manuscripts 319
b) Archival Sources 320

Bibliography 325

Photograph Credits 390

Index of Names 392

Index of Places 403