

Criminal Justice and Corporate Business

(20th AIDP International Congress of Penal Law, Rome, Italy, 13th-16th November 2019)

Edited by

Paola Severino
John A.E. Vervaele
Antonio Gullo

RIDP

Revue Internationale de Droit Pénal
International Review of Penal Law
Revista internacional de Derecho Penal
Международное обозрение уголовного права
国际刑事法律评论
المجلة الدولية للقانون الجنائي
Revista Internacional de Direito Penal
Rivista internazionale di diritto penale
Internationale Revue für Strafrecht

Maklu

Antwerpen | Apeldoorn | Portland

Summary

Criminal Justice and Corporate Business: An Introduction to the XX International Congress of Penal Law 2019, by Paola Severino, John A.E. Vervaele and Antonio Gullo	7
---	---

Opening Remarks

Opening Remarks, by Andrea Prencipe	17
Opening of the XX World Congress of the International Association of Penal Law, by Alfonso Bonafede	21
Criminal Justice and Business Activities: the Evolution of a Difficult Relationship, by Domenico Carcano	23
Truth, Justice and the International Criminal Court, by Rosario Aitala	35
Opening Remarks, by Paola Rubini	39

The Resolutions of the Four International Colloquia: An Overview

The Resolutions	43
An Introduction to Individual Liability for Business Involvement in International Crimes, by Stefano Manacorda	65
Individual Liability for Business Involvement in International Crimes. The Crucial Issue of (so-Called) 'Neutral Acts', by Vincenzo Militello	73
Jurisdiction Over Corporate Human Rights Abuses – The Requirement of a Legal Basis and the Scope of Territorial Jurisdiction, by Martin Böse	87
Crimes Against Food Safety and Public Health at the International Level. Trends in Comparative Perspective, by Massimo Donini	93
Fighting Against Food Safety Crimes in Chinese Criminal Justice, by Xiumei Wang, Chenguang Zhao and Xiaoqiang Dai	109

Corruption, Financial Markets and the Role of Criminal Law

Economic Crime and Proportionality of Sanctions, by Elisabetta Rosi	133
The Prevention of Corruption in Italy, by Raffaele Cantone	139
Double Enforcement Track: The National Point of View, by Carlo Enrico Paliero	161

Economic Crime and New Technologies

New Technologies as Tools for and Means Against Crime: Substantial Aspects, by Lorenzo Picotti	183
Transnational E-Evidence and Data Protection. Striving for Global Safeguards in the Second Additional Protocol to the Cybercrime Convention, by Gert Vermeulen	201
Cyber Crimes and Penal Law in the United States, by Emilio C. Viano	225
Digital Evidence and Admissibility, by Giulio Illuminati	273

Corporate Liability, Business Integrity and Human Rights Protection

Moving Towards International and Supranational Business Criminal Justice. The Human Rights Dimension, by Guido Raimondi	287
Criminal Justice Systems in Europe and Corporate Crimes, by Gianluca Esposito	295
Combatting Corporate Impunity for Complicity In Genocide Under International Law, by Michael J. Kelly	301
Adopting Compliance Programs in a Regulated and Multinational Market: the Experience of an Italian Pharmaceutical Group, by Luca Carminati	323
No Good Deed Goes Unpunished? Local Content Requirements and CSR Policies in an Anti-Corruption Perspective, by Daniele Novello	329
The Gears of Environmental Victimization, by Eduardo Saad-Diniz and João Victor Palermo Gianecchini	347
Large-Scale Environmental Destruction by Corporate Activity as a Core International Crime, by Megumi Ochi	375
The Role of Non-Conviction Based Sanctions in Environmental Compliance, by Francesco Mazzacova	401

Criminal Justice and Corporate Business: Towards New Perspectives

Corporate Compliance and Criminal Liability of Corporations in the Light of Corporate Social Responsibility and Human Rights Obligations, by John A.E. Vervaele	415
The Importance of Corporate Compliance in the Digital Era, by Paola Severino	435