

Angelica Federici

Convents, Clausura and Cloisters

Religious Women in Late Medieval Rome and Latium

viella

Table of contents

Preface	7
1. Major Themes
1. Space, Gender and Politics: Reframing the Female Religious Experience	9
2. Contemporary Readings of the Cloister	17
3. Idealised Realities: The Onset of Nunneries in Rome	26
2. Roman Nunneries
1. Female Power and Prestige: The Extraordinary Case of Sant'Agnese fuori le Mura	33
2. Icons in Clausura : Domenico Guzmán and the Nuns at San Sisto Vecchio	51
3. Assisi in Rome? Clare's Influence at Santi Cosma e Damiano in Mica Aurea	65
4. Baronial Authority and Identity in Rome: The Colonna at San Silvestro in Capite	72
5. Interpreting Medieval Vestiges: Rediscovering San Lorenzo in Panisperna	81
6. Comparing Roman Conventual Communities in Context: A Few Considerations	90
3. The Benedictines in Latium
1. Forlorn Latium: Medieval Nunneries in the Region	93
2. Women's Place and Space: Introducing Benedictine Art and Architecture	99
3. Between Rome and Naples: Artistic Presence at Santa Maria del Monacato, Castrocielo	102
4. Rediscovering Forgotten Identities: San Luca, Guarcino	110
5. Hidden Gems: San Pietro, Montefiascone	114
6. Off the Beaten Tracks: Sant'Angelo di Orsano, Trevi nel Lazio	121
7. Comparing Benedictine Conventual Communities: A Few Considerations	127

4. The Mendicants in Latium
1. Game Changers and Puzzling Absences: The Ascent of the Clarissans in Latium	131
2. Female Patronage or Baronial Intervention? San Sebastiano, Alatri	135
3. Shedding New Light on Neglected Sites: San Michele Arcangelo, Amaseno	145
4. A New Manifesto for the Mendicant Order: San Pietro in Vineis, Anagni	149
5. Treasures under Water: The Nunnery of Santa Filippa Mareri, Borgo San Pietro	159
6. Comparing Clarissan Conventual Communities: A Few Considerations	167
Epilogue	169
Appendix
Benedictine Convents in Latium (ca. 1200-1400)	177
Clarissan Convents in Latium (ca. 1200-1400)	186
Bibliography	191
Index of Names	209
Index of Places	215