

Contemporary Physician-Authors

Exploring the Insights of Doctors Who Write

Edited by Nathan Carlin

Contents

List of contributors	ix
Foreword	xii
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction	1
NATHAN CARLIN
PART I
Two traditional representatives	19
1 Richard Selzer: three troubling tales of physicians' peculiar behavior	21
TONY MIKSANEK
2 Oliver Sacks: a kind of reminiscence	36
TOM KOCH
PART II
Three contemporary favorites	53
3 Perri Klass: books are like stethoscopes	55
SEEMA YASMIN
4 Abraham Verghese: the power of storytelling	64
KAARKUZHALI BABU KRISHNAMURTHY
5 Atul Gawande: doctoring, dying, and the pursuit of "Better"	80
THOMAS D. HARTER

PART III
Medicine, meaning, and identity	95
6 Danielle Ofri: offering lessons for all	97
SUSAN STAGNO
7 Paul Kalanithi: sometimes, they break—craft as a window	114
LISE SAFFRAN
8 Joanna Cannon: leaving medicine to pursue a physician's calling	131
ABRAHAM M. NUSSBAUM
9 Damon Tweedy: stories on being Black, sick, and marginalized	146
KEISHA RAY
10 Fady Joudah: an exploration of borders and boundaries	158
ANDREW CHILDRESS
11 Louise Aronson: using facts and stories to improve medical care for older adults	172
CRAIG M. KLUGMAN
12 Marc Agronin: into the heart of growing old	186
JILL YAMASAKI
PART IV
Alternative models	199
13 David Watts and Frank Huyler: a tale of two patients	201
DAVID ELKIN
14 Tending and extending: the long and short of Siddhartha Mukherjee	220
SANDHYA SHETTY
15 Arthur Kleinman: professional caregiving narratives become personal	241
CAROL LEVINE
Index	257