

Lisette Lopez Szwydky • Glenn Jellenik
Editors

Adaptation Before Cinema

Literary and Visual Convergence from Antiquity through the Nineteenth Century

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Adaptation's Past, Adaptation's Future	1
	Glenn Jellenik and Lissette Lopez Szwydky
Part I	Reframing Adaptation's Potential, Historically	19
2	A Classical Drama of Human Bondage: Recurrent Replications of Supplication, Appeals, and Social Justice Activism from Antiquity Through the Present	21
	Mary-Antoinette Smith
3	Adaptation as the Art Form of Democracy: Romanticism and the Rise of Novelization	49
	Glenn Jellenik
4	Poetry After Descartes: Henry More's Adaptive Poetics	69
	Melissa Caldwell
5	History and/as Adaptation: MacBeth and the Rhizomatic Adaptation of History	91
	Anja Hartl
6	Shakespeare, Fakespeare: Authorship by Any Other Name	113
	Jim Casey

Part II Transmedia Culture-Texts	135
7 Shakespeare's Adaptations of the Fae and a "Shrewd and Knavish Sprite" in A Midsummer Night's Dream Valerie Guyant	137
8 The Medea Network: Adapting Medea in Eighteenth-Century Theatre and Visual Culture Katie Noble	155
9 The Making of Monsters: Thomas Potter Cooke and the Theatrical Debuts of Frankenstein and The Vampyre Eleanor Bryan	183
10 Dante Gabriel Rossetti at the Intersection of Painting and Poetry Dominique Gracia	213
11 Markers of Class: The Antebellum Children's Book Adaptations of The Lamplighter and Uncle Tom's Cabin Maggie E. Morris Davis	235
12 Alice, Animals, and Adaptation: John Tenniel's Influence on Wonderland and Its Early Adaptation History Kristen Layne Figgins	261
13 CODA: Transmedia Cultural History, Convergence Culture, and the Future of Adaptation Studies Lissette Lopez Szwydky	283
Index	305