

Emotions of Conflict, Israel 1949–1967

ORIT ROZIN

Translated by

HAIM WATZMAN

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Introduction	1
I. THE 1950s
1. Infiltration and the Making of Israel's Emotional Regime in the State's Early Years	23
2. Anger and the Thirst for Revenge: Reprisal Operations and the Law	50
3. From Fear to Solidarity and Elation: The Response to the Czechoslovakian-Egyptian Arms Deal	94
II. THE 1960s
4. Israeli Border Kibbutzim in the Shadow of Syrian Artillery	137
5. The Enemy Within: Arab Citizens in Israel	163
6. Israel in "Its Finest Hour": Emotional Management During the Waiting Period	209
Conclusion	258
Appendix: Resources	275
Bibliography	279
Index	299