Monteverdi and the Marvellous

Poetry, Sound, and Representation

ROSEEN GILES
Duke University

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations [page x]
List of Music Examples [xi]
Acknowledgements [xiii]

Introduction: Monteverdi's Modes of Representation [1]

1 The Sound of the Marvellous [12]
Meraviglia in the Late Renaissance [18]
The Sound of the Marvellous [26]

2 Marino and the Rime boscherecce [41]
Monteverdi and the Poet of the Five Senses [44]
Inverisimilar Narratives: Monteverdi's Madrigali boscherecci (1614) [48]

3 Monteverdi's Contradictory Kisses [81]
What Does a Lover Want from Time? Eros in Greek Lyric [86]
Monteverdi's Personal Impatience: The Second Book (1590) [94]

4 Il bacio mordace: Of Kissing and Biting [134]
Concerto: Monteverdi and the Song of Kisses (1619) [140]

5 Tasso and the Music of Epic [164]
Monteverdi and Epic [176]
Outbid but Not Outdone: Giaches de Wert [184]
'In mille piante incise': On Engraving Trees and Hearts [201]

6 Monteverdi's Earliest Laments [216]
Epic Laments: The Third Book (1592) [219]
Monteverdi's Armida [223]
Tancredi and Rinaldo: Monteverdi and Lamenting Men [239]

Bibliography [269]
Index [282]