

Eveline Buchheim · Jennifer Coates
Editors

War Memory and East
Asian Conflicts,
1930–1945

palgrave macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Engaging with War Memory and the Legacies of East Asian Conflicts, 1930–1945	1
	Eveline Buchheim and Jennifer Coates
Part I Narrating War Memory
2	National Narratives and Individual Agency: Negotiating Power Relations in Kamioka POW Camp	17
	Ernestine Hoegen
3	Beyond the “Hell-Ship” Experience: Former Okinawan POWs Visit Hawai’i After 72 Years	39
	Kaori Akiyama
Part II Localizing War Memory
4	Toward a Borderless Memory of Hiroshima: From Victimhood to Witness Culture in the 75 Years of Peace Declarations	63
	Luli van der Does
5	Camouflaged War Heritage: Brecciated War Heritage Sites in Kyoto	95
	Oliver Moxham

Part III Exhibiting War Memory

- 6 Encountering Stories: “Ordinary” Voices Reflecting on Japanese Wartime Aggression in Japan in the Early 1990s 135
Aomi Mochida
- 7 Exhibitions and Their Afterlives: Dutch Exhibitions of the Second World War in Indonesia, 1946–2000 159
Caroline Drieënhuizen

Part IV Visualising War Memory

- 8 Reimagining Japan: Tintin, Hergé and the Enemy 187
Kees Ribbens
- 9 A Sense of a Memory: Prosthetic War Memories
Among the Japanese Cinema Audience 213
Jennifer Coates
- 10 Contextualizing Cow: War Atrocities in Twenty-First-Century Chinese Movies of the Second Sino–Japanese War 237
Timothy Yun Hui Tsu

- Index 265