

Dwellings, Identities and Homes

European Housing Culture from the Viking Age to the Renaissance

Edited by Mette Svart Kristiansen & Kate Giles

JUTLAND ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

Contents

7 Introduction

Kate Giles & Mette Svart Kristiansen

Part 1. Exploring Domestic and Social Space

13 Ways of Living in Medieval England

Kate Giles

29 Human Spatial Behaviour in Dwellings and Social Psychology

Ole Grøn

39 The Investigation of Domesticated Space in Archaeology
– Architecture and Human Beings

Thomas Kühnreiber

53 The Investigation of Domesticated Space in Archaeology
– Beyond Architecture

Christina Schmid

Part 2. Regions and Regionality

67 The Rural Home. Local or 'European' Style?

Eva Svensson

79 'The Schleswig Farmstead' – A Key to the Dynamics of Culture in the Danish-German Borderland from Medieval to Recent Times

Peter Dragsbo

87 Medieval Turf Houses in Jutland, Denmark – A Regional Building Practice?

Charlotte Boje Hilligsø Andersen & Anne-Louise Haack Olsen

97 Islands Across the Sea

– Aspects of Regionality in the Norse North Atlantic Diaspora

Mogens Skaaning Ravnsbjerg Høegsberg

Part 3. Houses, Homes and Social Strategies

- 113 Houses and Households in Viking Age Scandinavia – Some Case Studies
Sarah Croix
- 127 Opening Doors – Entering Social Understandings of the Viking Age Longhouse
Anna S. Beck
- 139 “Þat var hátr í þann tíma”
– Representations of the Viking Age and Medieval Houses in Grettis saga
Teva Vidal
- 149 Proper Living – Exploring Domestic Ideals in Medieval Denmark
Mette Svart Kristiansen
- 163 Form and Function in the Late Medieval Rural House
– An example from the Weald and Downland Open Air Museum, Sussex
Danae Tankard
- 175 A House is Not Just a Home
– Means of Display in English Medieval Gentry Buildings
Jill Campbell
- 185 Smoke Houses and Entrepreneurship in Two Rural Villages of Medieval Scania, Örja and Skegrie
Adam Bolander
- 195 The ‘Stube’ and its Heating – Archaeological Evidence for a Smoke-Free
Living Room between Alps and North Sea
Rainer Atzbach
- 211 Medieval Houses in Aalborg, Denmark – a Study of Excavated Timber Houses
Christian G. Klinge
- 223 Burned-down Timber-framed Houses in Medieval Odense, Denmark
Anne Katrine Thaastrup-Leth
- 231 The House as a Social Project in Northern-Central Italy, c 700-1000
Paola Galetti
- 243 The Development of Dutch Townhouses 700-1300
Jeroen Bouwmeester
- 255 List of Contributors