

Contemporary Approaches to Mesopotamian Literature

How to Tell a Story

Edited by

Dahlia Shehata

Karen Sonik

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Figures and Tables	ix
Abbreviations	x
Notes on Contributors	xii

Introduction: How to Tell a Story in Ancient Mesopotamia	1
Dahlia Shehata and Karen Sonik

PART 1

Issues, Theories, and Methods

1	Mesopotamian Literature: Issues, Theories, and Methods of Sumerian and Akkadian Narrative Analysis	11
Karen Sonik and Dahlia Shehata

PART 2

Sumerian Narratives: Narratological Approaches

2	Focalization and “Story Time”: Techniques of Sumerian Narrative	101
Anne Löhnert
3	There and Back Again: Journeying and Narrative Structure in the Sumerian Lugalbanda Epics	117
Gina Konstantopoulos

PART 3

Akkadian Gilgamesh Narratives: Contextual and Intertextual Approaches

4	Gilgamesh and the Forest of Gemstones: Symbolic Value—History of Tradition—Intertextuality	141
Martin Lang

- 5 Journey towards Death: The Cedar Forest in the SB Gilgamesh Epic from an Intertextual Perspective 158
Selena Wisnom
- 6 Allusion or No Allusion: Commenting on the Interpretations of SB Gilgamesh Epic v 1–26 and IX 171–194 183
Gösta Ingvar Gabriel

PART 4

Assyrian Royal Narratives: Contextual and Intertextual Approaches

- 7 The Good, the Bad, (and the Ugly?): Propaganda and the Tukulti-Ninurta Epic 203
Stefan Jakob
- 8 A Methodology for the Transtextual Analysis of Assyrian Royal Narrative Texts 213
Johannes Bach
- 9 Making the Invisible Visible: Propaganda, Ideology, and Intertextuality in Assyrian Royal Narrative 235
Karen Sonik and Jamie Novotny

PART 5

Sumerian and Akkadian Narratives: Novel Approaches

- 10 Characterization and Identity in Mesopotamian Literature: The Gilgamesh Epic, Enuma elish, and Other Sumerian and Akkadian Narratives 255
Karen Sonik

Index of Ancient Words (Akkadian, Greek, Sumerian) 297
 Index of Modern Authors and Researchers 299
 Index of (Ancient) Names and Subjects 300
 Index of Primary Sources 309