

DOCTRINE AND SCRIPTURE IN EARLY CHRISTIANITY

VOLUME ONE

SCRIPTURE,
THE GENESIS OF DOCTRINE

FRANCES M. YOUNG

WILLIAM B. EERDMANS PUBLISHING COMPANY
GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN

Contents

Foreword by David F. Ford	xiii
Preface	xxiii
List of Abbreviations	xxv
1. Doctrine and Scripture: Mutually Coinherent? What Are the Problems?	1
1. A Widening Gap?	1
2. The Developmental Model	3
3. Hellenization of the Gospel	7
4. Changed Perspectives	11
2. Rethinking the Context: The School-Like Character of Early Christian Groups	14
1. Christianity: A Religion or What?	15
2. Synagogues and Schools	19
3. The Sociological Turn	22
4. Schools within “Fractionated” Churches: Two Key Examples	27
4.1. Rome in the Second Century	27
4.2. Alexandria in the Second and Early Third Centuries	29

5. Hellenization or the Acculturation of a Distinct Identity?	37
5.1. Acculturation as a Network of Schools	37
5.2. A School with a Distinct Identity?	38
6. Conclusion and Prospect	41
3. Reading Texts, Asking Questions: Key Second-Century Conclusions	44
1. Scripture and Its Exegesis	45
1.1. Marcion's Biblical Criticism and Its Context	49
1.2. Ptolemaeus's Letter to Flora	53
1.3. Justin's Reading of Scripture	55
2. God and Creation	58
2.1. Marcion and the God of the Scriptures	62
2.2. Marcion's Good God and the God of the Beyond	64
2.3. From Marcion's Duality to God's Monarchia	69
3. Conclusion	73
4. Summing up Scripture: From Gospel of Truth to Canon of Truth	74
1. Gnosticism	75
1.1. The Gospel of Truth	75
1.1.1. Overview	76
1.1.2. Saving the Lost: Gospel of Truth 31–34	78
1.1.3. Jesus as Revealer: Gospel of Truth 18.7–20.2 and 30.35–31.35	80
1.1.4. Names in the Book of the Living: Gospel of Truth 19.34–23.31 and 37.35–43.22	83
1.2. Behind and Beyond the Gospel of Truth	85
1.2.1. The Gospel of Truth and the Valentinian System	85
1.2.2. The Gospel of Truth and Scripture	87

2. The Canon of Truth	90
2.1. Irenaeus's Demonstration of the Apostolic Preaching and the Rule of Faith	91
2.2. Proof from Prophecy	92
2.3. The Threefold Shape of the Rule of Faith / Canon of Truth	93
2.4. The Names	95
2.5. The Rule of Faith and Rule of Life	97
2.6. The Rule of Faith as the Hypothesis of Scripture	98
2.7. Irenaeus's Reading of Scripture in the Light of Scripture's Hypothesis	99
3. So Was It Gnosticism That Provoked Definition of the Scriptural Canon and the Canon of Faith?	104
3.1. Irenaeus and the Gospel of Truth: Parallels and Contrasts	104
3.2. Did Gnosticism Provoke Canonical Definition?	105
3.2.1. On God and Creation	106
3.2.2. On Recapitulation	107
3.2.3. On the Scriptural Canon	108
4. Conclusion	108
5. Divine Pedagogy: Unearthing the Intent of the Holy Spirit	110
1. Doctrine as Pedagogy	110
1.1. Different Levels and the Learning Journey	110
1.2. The Intent of the Divine Author	114
1.3. Paideia and Dogma	117
2. Right Doctrine, Right Reading	122
2.1. Against Celsus—Replaying the Second-Century Arguments	124
2.1.1. Oracles and Prophecies	125
2.1.2. God's Knowledge of Us: Judgment, Providence, and Creation	128

2.1.3. Our Knowledge of God: Knowing and Worshipping the One Unknowable Creator of All	131
2.1.4. Scripture: Wrong Doctrine, Wrong Reading	134
2.1.5. Conclusion	136
2.2. First Principles: Toward a "Single Body of Doctrine"	136
2.2.1. The Rule of Faith	137
2.2.2. Inquiries into Meaning and Truth	139
2.2.3. From Scripture to Doctrine: The Holy Spirit	141
2.2.4. From Doctrine to Scripture: God	145
2.2.5. Beyond Doctrine and Scripture	149
3. Retrospect and Prospect	152
3.1. Doctrine and Scripture	152
3.2. Divine Pedagogy	154
6. Creeds: From Confession to Dogma	156
1. Cyril of Jerusalem: Scripture Digested for Catechesis	157
1.1. What Did Cyril Mean by "Summary"?	158
1.2. Cyril's Scriptural Proofs and Quotations	160
1.3. So What about Alternative Readings?	161
2. "Holy Dogmas": Scriptural Roots, Doctrinal Legacies	163
2.1. God	163
2.2. Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God	170
2.3. Born of the Virgin Mary	176
2.4. Crucified under Pontius Pilate, Was Dead and Buried	183
2.5. Resurrection and Ascension	191
2.6. Judgment	195
2.7. Sin	197
Excursus: Original Sin	199

2.8. Final Clauses: The Church, the Resurrection of the Body, and the Last Things	209
2.8.1. Bodily Resurrection and Eternal Life	209
2.8.2. The Church	213
2.8.2.1. Images of the Church Deriving from Scripture	214
2.8.2.2. Cyprian: The Unity of the Catholic Church and Beyond	217
2.9. Conclusion	220
3. Christian Teaching as Dogmatic Truth Grounded in a Plain Reading of Scripture	221
3.1. Epiphanius: Creedal Dogma and Scripture	222
3.2. Dogma and the Reaction against Allegory	223
3.3. Conclusion	225
7. Scripture, the Genesis of Doctrine: Conclusions and Consequences	226
1. Augustine's Teaching Christianity: Context and Purpose	227
1.1. From Augustine's Inventio to Canon Criticism	230
1.2. From Augustine's "Signs" to Scriptural Language and Doctrinal Concepts	234
1.3. From Augustine's Pedagogy to the Twenty-First-Century Renaissance in Theological Interpretation of Scripture	240
2. Beyond That Gap: An Interim Report	243
Bibliography	249
Index of Authors	261
Index of Subjects	264
Index of Scripture and Other Ancient Sources	271