

Human Freedom in the Age of AI

Filippo Santoni de Sio

Contents

Preface	vii
1 Introduction: Artificial intelligence and the future of freedom	1
PART 1
AI, freedom, and design	19
2 AI, freedom, and the limits of Universal Basic Income	21
3 The design stance in ethics of technology	38
PART 2
Freedom at work	51
4 Algorithmic domination and workers' freedom	53
5 Against the exploitation of internet users	74
6 AI and good work in a pluralistic society	95
PART 3
Control and responsibility	117
7 Four responsibility gaps with AI	119
8 Meaningful Human Control over AI	149
9 The social dimensions of Meaningful Human Control over AI	178

PART 4	199
Design for democracy
10 Design for democracy: Deliberation and experimentation	201
11 Expanding democracy: Design for aesthetic engagement and anti-power	231
12 Technology and the future of democracy: Postcolonial and more-than-human design	245
Index	261