

Essential Soldiers

Women Activists and Black Power Movement Leadership

Kenja McCray

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PRESS

New York

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                                            |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Preface                                                                                                                             | vii |
| Abbreviations                                                                                                                       | ix  |
| Introduction                                                                                                                               | 1   |
| 1. "Nobody Knows Our Names": Motivations and Origins                                                                                       | 15  |
| 2. "Agitate. Educate. Organize": Women in Kawaidea-InfluencedNeighborhood Organizations, the Press, and Protest Politics               | 33  |
| 3. " Taifa Saa Means Nation Time": Women, Institution Building,and Program Development                                          | 73  |
| 4. "To Build Our Nation . . . Teach Our Children!":Women's Gender Roles in Independent andSupplementary Black Educational Programs | 95  |
| Epilogue: "Kazi Like You Mean It": Kazi Leadership Lessonsin Contemporary Context                                               | 139 |
| Acknowledgments                                                                                                                     | 157 |
| Glossary                                                                                                                            | 161 |
| Notes                                                                                                                               | 165 |
| Bibliography                                                                                                                        | 211 |
| Index                                                                                                                               | 233 |
| About the Author                                                                                                                    | 249 |