

ROBERT AQUINAS MCNALLY

CAST OUT OF EDEN

The Untold Story of John Muir,
Indigenous Peoples, and the American Wilderness

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA PRESS

Lincoln

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations

xi

Acknowledgments

xiii

Prologue: The View from Sheepy Ridge, One

xv

PART 1. A VOICE CRYING FOR WILDERNESS

1

1. From Old World to New

3

2. A Widening World Darkens

15

3. The Ungodliness of Dirt

31

PART 2. EAST OF EDEN

41

4. Yosemite's Genocidal Backstory

43

5. Return to the Garden

59

6. Well Done for Wildness!

77

7. Missionary to the Tlingits

92

8. One Savage Living on Another

111

9. The Grapes of Wealth

125

PART 3. ONE LAST TIME

137

10. Wilderness Influencer

139

11. On Top of the World

154

12. River Out of Eden

170

13. Leave Only Footprints, Take Only Pictures

190

14. Bettering America's Best Idea

207

Epilogue: The View from Sheepy Ridge, Two

229

Notes

233

Bibliography

253

Index

279

ILLUSTRATIONS

Following page 136

1. Village gathering along the Merced River
2. The young John Muir
3. Bridgeport Tom
4. Joseph C. LeConte
5. Muir among a Kutzadika'a family preparing acorn mush
6. Charles Lummis with Muir
7. President Theodore Roosevelt and Muir at Glacier Point
8. The Muir family at home in Martinez
9. Muir with Henry Fairfield Osborn
10. C. Hart Merriam with Muir in Muir's study
11. O'Shaughnessy Dam dedication
12. Tiana Williams-Claussen of the Yurok Tribe's condor restoration program
13. Southern Sierra Miwuks Tara Fouch-Moore and Sandra Chapman