

Architecture against Democracy

Histories of the Nationalist International

Reinhold Martin and Claire Zimmerman
Editors

University of Minnesota Press
Minneapolis
London

Contents

Editors' Note	vii
Introduction: Architecture and the Nationalist International Reinhold Martin and Claire Zimmerman	1
Part I. Hegemony: Coercion with Consent	17
1. Hints on Whiteness and American Public Architecture Mabel O. Wilson	19
2. The Photographic Mythology and Memory of Hitler's Destroyed New Reich Chancellery Naomi Vaughan	37
3. DIY Fascism: Architecture and the Autarchic Exhibition of Italian Minerals Ruth W. Lo	59
4. The Concrete Politics of Housing: Assembling Cecap Guarulhos in Authoritarian Brazil José H. Bortoluci	82
5. Freehold/Freedom: Exurban Existence in the United Arab Emirates Kishwar Rizvi	98
Part II. Technocracy: Ideologies of Expertise	119
6. Germanizing Krakow: The Political Complexity of Architecture under Nazi Occupation Paul B. Jaskot and Eve Duffy	121
7. Afro-Caribbean Migration and Detention at Ellis Island Itohan Osayimwese	140

8. Curtain Wall Inside-Out: Technocracy, Theocracy, and Technoaesthetic Formations of Cold War Fascism	163
María González Pendás
9. Sert Goes South: Planning South America	185
Ana María León
10. Albert Speer, Ernst Neufert, and the Modularization of the World	211
Nader Vossoughian
Part III. Democracy: Perennially Deferred?	233
11. “The Fairness of Our Demands”: Ecclesiastical Architecture, Bureaucracy, and Resistance in the Prussian Rhineland, 1815–1840	235
Laura diZerega
12. Metropolis against the State: Architectures of Violence after the Paris Commune	257
Peter Minosh
13. The Racial Allegories of Frank Lloyd Wright’s Prairie Style	279
Charles L. Davis II
14. Democracy and War: The University of Baghdad between Collaboration and National Competition	299
Esra Akcan
15. The Aesthetics of Resistance: Istanbul’s Standing Man between the Body Politic and Bare Life	321
Can Bilsel
Conclusion: Democracy Now?	343
Reinhold Martin and Claire Zimmerman
Contributors	353
Index	357