

VLAC II
Visual Languages of Ancient Coins

TRACING THE LOCAL(S): THE LOCAL
WORLD OF MEDITERRANEAN LANDSCAPES
IN GREEK AND ROMAN COINAGE

Collection of contributions of an international conference held at the Goethe University in Frankfurt from 29th November to 30th November 2019

edited by Saskia Kerschbaum and Hülya Vidin

Sponsored by the Goethe-University Frankfurt, the Technische Universität Braunschweig, the Numismatische Kommission der Länder and the Fritz Rudolf Kunker GmbH & Co

AUSONIUS ÉDITIONS
— Numismatica Antiqua 17 —

BORDEAUX
2025

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction: Localism and Coinage, Saskia Kerschbaum & Hülya Vidin	7
Apollo Carneius on Cyanean coins – defining of and fitting into a local identity, Hülya Vidin	23
A tetradrachm from Segesta: Adoption of local patterns as a sign of victory, Johannes Heinisch	51
Coins of Cilician cities between Greek models, Seleucid ideologies and local traditions, Annalisa Polosa	61
The coinage of the Dassaretai and their urban centre, Pero Ardjanliev	73
Between growing Roman dominance and local obstinacy – the coinage of Capua and allied cities in the Second Punic War, Simone Vogt	89
Civil war identities: the representation of foreign peoples and places on civil war coinage (68-69 A.D.), Ellen M. H. MacDougall	101
Tauropolos and others on the coins of Amphipolis, Frank Daubner	117
Nicaea vs. Nicomedia – New numismatic insights into a civic rivalry, Saskia Kerschbaum	131
The Forum Marsyas as a colonial type at Tyre, Mallus, Bostra and Neapolis, Robyn L. Le Blanc	153
Identitätskonstruktionen in Adramyttion. Münzgeschichte und historisches Gedächtnis in einer mysischen Landschaft, Bernhard Weisser & Andrea Gorys	177
Summaries	205