

Fundamental Principles Strengthening the EU Regulatory Framework on Financial Return Crowdfunding

IROFILI KYRIAKI PECHLIVANIDI

DIKE

Table of contents

Acknowledgments.....	VII
Table of contents.....	XI
List of abbreviations.....	XV
Bibliography.....	XIX
Introduction.....	1
Part I: Fundamental EU principles that govern FR-crowdfunding.....	9
Introduction to Part I.....	11
Chapter 1: The socioeconomic potential of crowdfunding and the principle of sustainability.....	13
A. Financial return crowdfunding: A CMU initiative.....	13
I. The development and limits of regulation: An EU-US comparison.....	13
a. EU.....	13
b. US.....	18
II. Crowdfunding regulation: Opportunities and limits.....	20
a. The economic potential of crowdfunding.....	26
b. The social potential of crowdfunding.....	34
B. Sustainability: A multifaceted principle.....	39
I. Stricto sensu and lato sensu sustainability.....	39
II. The common ground between sustainability and proportionality.....	45
A conclusion to Chapter 1 and an introduction to Chapter 2.....	50
Chapter 2: The principles of good faith, loyalty and care in FR-crowdfunding regulation.....	52
A. Fiduciary duties in Europe.....	52
I. The European Continental and Anglo-Saxon origins of fiduciary duties.....	52
II. Fiduciary duties in EU financial legislation.....	56
B. Fiduciary duties in the ECSPR.....	60
I. The ECSPR's impact on contractual agreements and horizontal direct effect.....	60
II. Fiduciary duties to whom?.....	62
a. Agencies.....	63
b. Partnerships.....	68
c. Trusts.....	68
d. Summary.....	71
A conclusion to Chapter 2 and an introduction to Chapter 3.....	71

Table of contents

Chapter 3: The principle of the rule of law.....	73
A. The rule of law in the operation of the EU	73
I. The pursuit of regulatory complements through supervision and enforcement	73
II. The ESRB: Existing powers and structure	76
B. Theoretical perspectives	80
I. The European origins of the rule of law and the Union’s law	80
II. The relationship between public governance and the rule of law	86
A conclusion to Chapter 3.....	88
Conclusion to Part I	91
Part II: Strengthening the application of fundamental principles	93
Introduction to Part II.....	95
Chapter 4: Remodelling crowdfunding.....	97
A. Minimum amendments.....	97
I. The existing model	97
II. Reshaping the existing model.....	98
a. CSP operation.....	98
b. Client classification	101
c. Arrangements to prevent conflicts of interest	103
B. Further enhancements.....	106
I. The introduction of complementary models.....	106
II. Re-imagining the ECSPR	112
A conclusion to Chapter 4 and an introduction to Chapter 5.....	127
Chapter 5: A sustainable secondary market for FR-crowdfunding.....	128
A. Are the exchange markets sustainable?	128
I. Primary and secondary, traditional and new markets	128
a. Defining exchanges	128
b. The concept of exchange adaptability	130
II. Difficulty in creating a sustainable FR-crowdfunding exchange	135
a. Characteristics of new exchanges: The token exchanges.....	135
B. The introduction of an FR-Crowdfunding exchange market.....	142
I. The convergence of crowdfunding with tokens	142
II. A sui generis ETF framework.....	147
A conclusion to Chapter 5 and an introduction to Chapter 6.....	152

Chapter 6: Systemic risk and state aid in the financial sector.....	153
A. The existing rescue and restructuring aid mechanism.....	153
I. The substantial legal basis.....	153
a. Introduction to rescue and restructuring aid.....	153
b. Existing criteria for the authorisation of rescue and restructuring aid.....	156
c. Should FR-crowdfunding be considered systemically important?	161
II. Extent of pre- authorisation rescue and restructuring aid review	167
B. Enhancing the rescue and restructuring aid mechanism.....	171
I. Analysis of macroprudential weaknesses.....	171
II. Expanding the role of the ESRB.....	180
a. A lack of macroprudential assessment of the authorisation of rescue and restructuring state aid	180
b. Inclusion of a macroprudential assessment in the statement of reasons	182
A conclusion to Chapter 6.....	184
Conclusion to Part II.....	185
Conclusion	187